BPW of Duplin Held Meeting Monday Night

At a regular dinner meeting of the Business and Professional Women's Club at Fussell's Restaurant on Monday night Mrs. Grace Aske of Morehead City, new director spoke briefly and gave instructions for the coming year's work in the BPW organization. Mrs. Robert West of Warsaw spoke on behalf of the club and thanked Mrs. Annie Thelma Harmon for her splendid work in directing the plans for the recent district meeting held in Warsaw. This was followed by an election by the club. Mrs. Harmon is club president and Mrs. West is a former president.

During the business hour it was decided that the club donate a contribution to the home project, which is for the purpose of building a home for retired business women. This is being sponsored by all BPW clubs.

Mrs. Harmon read letters from various clubs at the recent district meeting, expressing their thanks

Matthias Boys Arrive For Visit With Family

Egbert and Harold Matthias, sons of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Matthias arrived by plane from California this week for a visit with their parents. Egbert has been in the U. S. Navy since August and has seen action in Korea and spent some time in Japan. For the past six weeks he has been stationed in San Francisco. His wife joined him there and returned with him on Friday. Harold enlisted in the U. S. Coast Guard in December and has just completed his basic training at Alameda. He was met in Raleigh on Thursday by his parents.

Garden Club Meets With Mrs. Draughan

Mrs. Clamence Brown won first place for her floral arrangement at the regular meeting of the Warsaw Garden Club on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Allen Draughan Sr. The winning arrangement was composed of purple iris, iris foliage, trailing zinnias, and President Clay azalea. A bird graced the composition.

Mrs. Draughan used crabapple blossoms in decoration. The program was in the form of "Information, please". Mrs. E. P. Ewers questioned those participants on the program. Mrs. Paul Potter responded to questions on peonies, Mrs. Sterling Marriner to lilacs and Mrs. Brown to hollys. Those failing to answer questions correctly were required to deposit a dime in the treasury.

It was announced that the garden club would be responsible for flowers placed in the Methodist, Baptist and Presbyterian churches on Mothers Day. Mrs. Hector McNeil gave the first book "Iris For Every Garden", beginning the "Garden Club Shelf" for the Warsaw Public Library. Other members will also donate other books towards this project.

Invited guests for the afternoon were Mesdames E. D. Pollock, L. S. Whittle, Allen Draughan, Jr., Glenn Brown and J. C. Surratt Sr.

Mrs. Draughan served frozen fruit salad and tea.
