Father-Son FFA Banquet

The FFA boys held their annual Father-Son banquet, Friday night, April 20, in the lunchroom at BF Grady.

Invocation was given by Lynn Harper, and Donnell Kornegay welcomed the Dads.

Several songs were sung by the Home Ec girls and Vo. Ag. boys, with music arranged by Donnie Wells.

Guest speaker of the evening was W. E. Debnan, WPTF News commentator. After Mr. Debnan's talk, the president recognized the visitors.

Gaston Grady, president, gave a speech entitled "Green Pastures, Their Place in the Economy of North Carolina."

Glenn Kornegay gave the achievements of the FFA boys for the past year.

An interesting talk on our Adult Farming Program was given by Glen Kornegay, and Our Veteran Farmer Training Program was given by Franklin Quinn.

The banquet concluded with the repeating of the pledge to the flag.

Donn Wells Gives Music Recital

Donn Allison Wells gave a piano recital last Wednesday night before a large audience of teachers, pupils and friends at the BF Grady school.

Included in the program were selections from Debussy, Chopin, and Handelshon. He was assisted by Mrs. Doris Byrd, vocalist.

At the close of the recital the Mozart Music Club presented him with a bust of Mozart in recognition of his musical ability. On several other occasions he has been the recipient of musical awards for his superior rating in both secular and sacred music.

Donn is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Wells. He is in his junior year at the BF Grady school.

According to Mrs. Florrie Byrd, music teacher, he shows unusual musical ability and has a promising future as a pianist.
