Lt. Hugh Maxwell And Family Are Visiting In County

Lt. Col. and Mrs. H. D. Maxwell, H. H. D. III and their young daughter have arrived from St. Johns, Newfoundland, where the Lt. Col. is stationed with the U. S. Air Corps, to spend a 30-day leave with relatives at Maxwell's Mill. They came via Washington, D. C., and spent a couple of days with a sister of Mrs. Maxwell and her family, arriving here the latter part of the week. They will go to South Carolina to visit the Regale family next week for a few days and then the Lt. Col. will spend the remainder of the time, "just loafing around the mill." He says his work has been rather strenuous for the last few months and although he looks well and seems to be in good health, said he was tired and really needed a rest. Mrs. Maxwell and the children will not return to Newfoundland with him but will then go back to S. C. for a longer visit with her parents.
