Mrs. John Anderson Johnson

The marriage of Miss Helen Louise Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Tracy Brown of Magnolia, and John Anderson Johnson, son of Senator and Mrs. Rivers Dunn Johnson of Warsaw, took place Saturday evening, June 2, at 6 o'clock in the Magnolia Methodist church.

The ceremony was presided over by the Rev. Daniel K. Glover, pastor of the church.

The church was attractively decorated in a garden scene with the use of white gladioli, snapdragons, and carnations in white floor baskets with a background of greenery including Southern Simaria and palms. White ornamental candelabra held cathedral candles.

Mrs. W. J. Middleton, Jr., of Warsaw rendered a program of nuptial music prior to the ceremony. Included in the renditions were Beethoven's "Moonlight Sonata," Chopin's "Etude in E," "Smilin' Through and All the Things You Are."

Mrs. Middleton accompanied Mrs. Dixon Wood, soloist, of Rose Hill, who sang, "Oh, Promise Me" and "I Love Thee" by Grieg. The traditional wedding marches were used and during the ceremony "Clair de Lune" was softly played.

The bride, wearing a colonial type wedding dress of white silk marquisette, entered with her father, who gave her in marriage. The gown was styled with a herina edged in wide rayon lace, a fitted bodice fastened in the back with a row of tiny lace covered buttons, and long fitted sleeves. The bouffant skirt which extended into a full train, had added beauty in the paneling which adomed at hip depth with dual rows of wide rayon lace. Her French veil of illusion was full length and was attached to a Juliet cap of seeded pearls. She carried a white satin bound Bible topped with a white throated orchid on a foundation of illusion from which cascaded a shower of white satin streamers in which were knotted miniature white blooms.

Attending the bride was her sister, Mrs. William Gattis of Dunn. She was gowned in a lavender marquisette dress over taffeta, with fitted bodice and bouffant skirt. A lavender cap and mits completed her ensemble. She carried an arm bouquet of yellow roses, wine larkspur and snapdragons.

The bridegroom was attended by his brother, Vivian Best Johnson as best man. Ushers were Rivers D. Johnson, Jr., James Norwood West, Willis E. Bartlett, Jr. and Eldon Brown, brother of the bride.

Honorary bridesmaids were Miss Myra Butler, Miss Lois Godbold, Miss Virginia Easley, Miss Alta Lawson, Miss Geraldine Johnson, Mrs. Eldon Brown, Mrs. Rivers D. Johnson, Jr., and Mrs. Allen Dranughan, Jr. They wore formal dresses and carnations in their hair.

Mrs. Brown, mother of the bride, was attired in a dress of dusty rose crepe and wore a corsage of rose hanotis, Fleur d'Amour and pinocchio roses. The groom's mother chose a mauve lace dress and wore a corsage of champagne cymbidium orchids and stephanotis.

CAKE CUTTING
Mr. and Mrs. H. McNair Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Eldon E. Brown entertained with a cake cutting at the Johnson home in Willard for the wedding party.

The home was attractively decorated in white summer flowers, candlelight and wedding bells. After the first slice of cake was cut by the bride and groom-elect, the guests were served wedding cake and ice cream.
