New Barber

The people of Magnolia welcome their new barber David Barnett and his family to the town. They wish him the best of luck and hope he will be with them for a long time, as they hate for their men to go around looking as if they should pay "dog tax."

Chinquapin Chats

BY: VIDA MILLOY

Vacation time's over now and Chinquapin's "suburbs" are howling for more news, even if the most interesting news is not for publication all the time. So, "Rib-Van-Wrinkle" wakes up with what news can be picked up and thought up.

Mrs. Gordon Kornegay spent some time at the home of Mrs. Vida Milloy last Friday in the interest of the Duplin County TB Association after four years of service. The TBA works in full cooperation with the Public Health Department in sponsoring a Tuberculosis Central Program for Duplin County. Just think, every public food operator, school teacher and helpers in food have TB examinations, besides all contacts of TB!

Duplin county is arresting TB as it's wanted for murder, and slowly but surely this dreaded disease will be outlawed and non-existent. The board meets in the courthouse in Kenansville June 28 at 8 p. m. to appoint new officers for the coming year. Short movies on subject will be shown. Guest speakers will be heard from Raleigh in connection with the N. C. TB Association.

Dr. E. P. Eura, President and Dr. H. W. Colwell, sale of seals department, head a list of thirty officials and well-known citizens of Duplin county. Each community is represented, free time will soon be available over the radio and programs will be given.

It's time to wake up for health's sake, work for TB Association before it takes us over in suffocation. Kenansville Court House, June 28 8 p. m. The public is invited.

Mrs. Anna S. King who suffered hemorrhage of the brain is slowly regaining her strength, but has to be in bed for weeks to come. A granddaughter, 17 years old, shoulders her responsibility few of us know or realize so young. Lots of assistance would be welcomed in the home. Two other children unable to assist but little shares of the burden which so little could mean so much in their hour of need.

Mrs. N. E. Gresham who has been ill for the past two weeks is out of bed and has a time keeping her husband, Mr. Ernest Gresham in bed as he has been under the weather since it's been so warm lately. We hope both will be in the best of health for the coming season of picnics and lunches to come under the trees in the new playground the community is getting under way. You'll have to visit it to catch the beauty. A name will probably be given it soon. It's at the new River Bridge, so get that fried chicken ready.

A tip for the ladies who find their husbands not "too hungry" at breakfast these mornings. I was told recently most husbands congregate about ten in the morning at some store for a snack and a bit of gossip while the wife frets over dinner and wonders if her spouse will feel like eating, take notice wives!

A British blonde, Olga Julia Rosenberg, arrived on the Queen Elizabeth in N. Y. June 20 to marry an unseen sweetheart, Mr. L. Cameron Trent of Laveland, Ohio. It might pay to advertise but HOW does one go about it here in Duplin county? It just isn't done. Or is it?

Our sympathy goes to Mrs. O. H. Register and family who lost her son in drowning last week. No one can be too careful in water to prevent such an occurrence.

Mrs. Ellis Williams and sister Miss Flaviy Pigford of Penderlea returned last week from an extended visit in Ashland, Ky., where they have been on vacation visiting their brother, Mr. Verd Pigford. It's the ladies first visit there and Miss Pigford is employed at the cosmete factory in Penderlea. A wonderful trip was enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Adrean Teachey and Miss Peggy Judge of Rocky Mt. visited here in Chinquapin last week with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Bostic and other relatives.

Miss Ellen Ann Dail, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Dail has been expected to go in training for nursing at James Walker Memorial hospital in Wilmington, starting in September. Here's hoping luck to Miss Dail and the nursing profession.

Miss Edie Pickett is taking a summer course of study as near as Wilmington where she can be at home at night and weekends.

Mr. G. F. Landen and son are batching while Mrs. Landen is completing her summer course of study in Wilson. Summer courses really make it possible to increase one's knowledge with little stress on the living habits for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Mills and family have moved to their new home near Chinquapin. Here's hoping they spend many happy years here.

Mrs. and Mrs. Leslie Heath and Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Norris have returned from a visit to Richmond, Va., where they have been visiting a daughter and other relatives.

Mrs. Bill Brent is home with her parents while her husband, Pfc. Bill Brent is with his Company in Japan. Let's hope the boy can soon be back home in peace.

Mr. and Mrs. G. O. Parker has as fathers day dinner guests several of her children last Sunday. They were Mr. and Mrs. Milton and Mr. and Mrs. Dufy Lane of Goldsboro and Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Parker of Burlington.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Wilmington had a big fathers day with his children home. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Voight of Washington, D. C., Clarence and Mrs. Clarence, Mr. and Mrs. John Colson of Weldon and son Edward who visited a week with us here, Harry Lee of Miami, Fla., Mr. Clegg Parker and son Ernest, cousins from Halifax, N. C. and others living near were present. A fishing party at Sneed's ferry was enjoyed over the weekend.

Mr. Harry Lee Williams, Ernest Parker and John Allen Williams spent last weekend in Weldon where they visited relatives.

Mrs. and Mrs. M. and M. Deal of Wilmington spent the weekend with Mrs. V. Milloy and visited Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Rhodes of Richlands Sunday afternoon.

Little Jerry Maready of Wilmington is spending a few days with Leon Sanderson after a trip to Mars Hill and Charlotte with them, but, be at the river swimming if you want to see them.

Miss "June Bug" Sanderson is torn between a career of watch making and the saw mill business with her father, Mr. Phillip Sanderson. The attractive Miss was scheduled to try the sawmill vocation first, starting Monday morning. It has not been learned as yet if she really got a start this week or not, but leave it to June.

Mrs. Mary Stevens of Catherine Lake is spending some time with her daughter, Mrs. Billie Brinkley.

Mrs. Joe Bradham is visiting a daughter in New York City for a short vacation and a first visit to the big city. Some are wondering if she will have a "Cran Crank" in her neck from looking up when she returns.

Mrs. Estelle Rivenbark visited with Mrs. A. Williams on a morning recently, we wonder if the visit had any connection about local husbands lounging around in the local stores, eating a morning snack.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Ward who are enjoying good health lately, returned recently from a few days fishing trip down at the sound in Wilmington. A little north of Topsail Beach. A good record of fishing was enjoyed by the party. The community is glad to welcome Dr. and Mrs. Hunter Heath who are making their home here since their marriage a short time ago. Mrs. Hunter is a former Canadian. We all wish them a long and happy abode in our midst.

Mrs. Howard Dail Merritt is the former Miss Jean Ellen Warren, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Moore Warren of Clinton. Her marriage to Mr. Merritt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Plato Merritt of Rose Hill, took place Sunday in the Rowan Baptist church Clinton.

It may be hot and bitter to endure the next five weeks in tobacco, but sweet to remember what might be bought with all the money if everything turns out as well as the average. Tobacco growers anticipate. Let's hope it does.

Miss Elsie Morton enjoyed a 16th birthday last Friday night with a host of her friends at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Morton. Miss Morton received many useful gifts, games were played and refreshments were served. How wonderful it must be to be sweet sixteen.
