Farm Safety Week To Be Observed One of Best Peach

National Farm Safety Week, July 22-28, as proclaimed by President Truman is designed to encourage all farm residents to adopt safe practices on the farm, in the home, at work, in trafile and at play assording to H. M. Ellistension agricultural engineer at State College.

The long-range objective of the week, says Ellis, is to make farm life safer, happier and more prosperous.

Many good stories that should appear in this week's issue will have to be le.t out but next week we hope to get back on full schedule. The feature "The Trial of Jesus" is ommitted as well as "We Salute." Due to illness of our Beulaville correspondent Beulaville news did not arrive. It will resume on regular schedule next week, we hope, as Mrs. Kathleen Miller reports she is improving nicely.

Next week also we will carry other newspaper comments on Ke thus far have been reasonable. Buyers can save at least 50 per bushel by bringing their own baskets or containers with them. Anyone who wants top quality peaches will be able to find them in and around Candor from now on until about

Special Meetings For Tobacco Growers

By L. F. WEEKS
There will be two meetings for tobacco growers of Duplia County next Tuesday afternoon July 24. The first meeting will be held at 2:30 p. m. at Dave Mercer's Tobacco field, about four miles from Beulaville beside of highway 111. At this meeting tobacco growers may see an acre of tobacco on land which was fumigated for root knot control, also an untreated knot control, also an untreated area in the same field.

The second meeting will be held at 4:00 p. m. on Jerry Smith's farm which is also on high 111, about two miles from Kornegays toward Beulaville. At this meeting, tobacco growers may see eight different varieties of tobacco growing side by side on Black Shank infested soll. Among these varieties two new resistant strains which look good, Dixie Bright 101-2 and Dixie Bright 102-2. To bacco growers who are interested in keeping up with the resistant varieties of tobacco should attend this meeting.

Mrs. Beasley had to go out in the yard to see Mr. Beasley in a few minutes, and while she was gone the baby dropped her rattler and couldn't get in the rattler and couldn't get in the rattler and play with her for a minute. When I did, I was very shocked to see that she was blind. When Mrs. Beasley came back in she told me that the baby was born blind and that there is nothing that can be done about it. we also talked to Roy Sanderson Mrs. Bly Sanderson. Mrs. Sanderson's daughter had a hot job ironing.

At Jimmy Miller's home his wife told us he was down at the corn crib. When we got to the barn the children told us he was down in the potatoe field. We enjoyed the walk there because right near the house they had a pretty pond. It looked like it would be good for fishing. I know the children must enjoy it a lot. When we got to the potatoe field he wasn't there, and we finally found him plowing his corn. He works on Mrs. Anna Stroud's farm, and it surely was a neat looking farm.
