Mrs. Kitchen Bridge Hostess

Mrs. P. A. Kitchen was bridge hostess on Thursday evening when she entertained her club and additional guests at an evening of bridge at her home. The hostess served iced cakes and peanuts during the game.

Bridge Clubs Meet Jointly

Mrs. Y. L. Smith and Bonnie Thomas were hostesses at the Smith home when they entertained jointly their bridge clubs and invited guests making up the three tables.

The club high prize went to Mrs. Belton Minshew who received a plant and Miss Nora Blackmore who won a food chopper. Visitor's high, a potted plant went to Miss Mable Bethea.

Bride-Elect Is Tea Honoree

Miss Lois Godbold, whose engagement to James Norwood West has been announced, was complimented on Wednesday afternoon when Mrs. John Anderson Johnson entertained at a tea in her honor.

Receiving at the door was Mrs. Rivers D. Johnson Sr. The hostess introduced guests to the receiving line, which was composed of Miss Godbold, her mother, Mrs. Charles Godbold, Miss Jean Gardner, bride-elect of September, Mrs. Lonnie Gardner, Miss Alta Lawson, bride-elect, and Mrs. Rivers D. Johnson, Jr.

The dining table was covered with a white linen and lace cloth and centered with a centerpiece of white carnations, tube roses and fern in a silver bowl. The punch bowl appointed one end of the table while a silver tray holding individual green and white cakes appointed the other end.

Mrs. J. W. Strickland presided at the door of the dining room. The club high prize went to Mrs. Belton Minshew who received a plant and Miss Nora Blackmore who won a food chopper.

Miss Mary Lynn Kitchen was a weekend guest of the A. J. Jenkins' at their lodge on the river.

Jel-type Fogging Machine Killing Colony Mosquitoes

MANTEO — Waterside Theatre on Roanoke Island is one of the most mosquito-free places along the North Carolina coast today. That is because officials of the Lost Colony, America's longest-lived outdoor drama now in its 11th season, recently purchased a jel-type fogging machine.

The fogging machine envelops the Fort Raleigh-Waterside Theatre area with great clouds of DDT each day. The result is death to mosquitoes and many other pests in their vacation.

Dr. and Mrs. Alton Greenlaw are members of the faculty at Ft. Caswell this week. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Potter and family are visiting relatives in Cowpens, S. C.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Garner and family and Mrs. C. V. Garner are spending this week at Carolina Beach. John Pierce arrived on Monday from Goodfellow Air Force Base in San Angelo, Texas en route to Malden Air Force Base, Miss.

Dr. and Mrs. Alton Greenlaw are counselors for Baptist Young folks assembly at Fort Caswell this week. Dr. and Mrs. Greenlaw were accompanied by Peggy and Hugh Mitchell and Patsy Korngay who will spend the week.

Rev. C. Herman Trueblood and family are vacationing in Norfolk, Va., and Elizabeth City. They expect to return in about a week.

Flood Damage Totals Millions

WEST ALTON, MO.—Utter disregard for the flood waters that surrounded their town was shown by residents of West Alton who refused pleading of officials that they leave their homes. Life going on as usual is illustrated graphically in this photo of women in shorts using a row boat to hang out the family wash.

sects that might otherwise annoy patrons of the drama. Albert Q. Bell, in charge of fogging operations, also sprays the theatre area with chemicals each day to kill mosquito larvae. Result — an outdoor amphitheatre, the most mosquito free place along the North Carolina coast.
