Thigpen - Huffman Plight Troth

The Cedar Fork Baptist church was the scene of the formal wedding of Miss Gwendolyn Thigpen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter M. Thigpen of Beulaville and Mr. Norman Huffman of Kinston. The double ring ceremony was performed Friday August 24 at 6 o'clock by the Rev. A. L. Brown pastor of the bride. The altar was banked with pines, and tall baskets of white glads, mums and fever leaf interspersed with cathedral candles and lighted tapers.

Prior to the ceremony a program of nuptial music was rendered by Miss Ruth Sanderson, pianist, and Mr. Rifton Raynor, soloist. Traditional wedding marches were used. Mrs. Norman Huffman attended her sister as matron of honor. She wore a floor length dress of pink taffeta, featuring an off shoulder bertha of the same and a bouffant skirt. Her Queen Anne bonnet and mitts were of matching taffeta and she carried a basket of pink and blue asters tied with blue satin ribbons. Honorary bridesmaids were Misses Lethea Gordon Thigpen, Hilda Brinson, Dehila Jones and Lorraine Quinn. They wore formal gowns of pastel shades and corsages of white carnations.

The groom was attended by his father as best man and ushers were Gordon Thigpen, uncle of the bride of Beulaville and Murray Huffman, brother of the groom of Jacksonville.

The bride was escorted and given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of white duchess satin fashioned with a yoke of nylon illusion having an off shoulder bertha of chantilly lace. The fitted bodice and pointed waist were closed with tiny self-covered buttons. The full skirt with a peplum of chantilly lace extended into a court train encircled with lace of the same. She wore a satin tiara embroidered in seed pearls to which was attached a veil of french illusion, with a chantilly lace edge. She carried an arm bouquet of fleur-de-arms and stephanotis, centered with purple throated white orchids. The only ornament worn by the bride was a single string of pearls, a gift of the groom.

Mrs. Huffman is a graduate of Beulaville school and holds a position at Camp Lejeune. Mr. Huffman graduated from the
