Miss Jean Constance Gardner Becomes Bride Of Earl Best Huie

Miss Jean Constance Gardner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie B. Gardner of Warsaw, became the bride of Earl Best Huie of Warsaw on Sunday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock in a ceremony performed in the Warsaw Methodist church. Mr. Huie is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Litchfield B. Huie of Warsaw.

The Rev. R. L. Crossno, pastor of the bride, assisted by the Rev. Jerry M. Newbold, pastor of the groom, performed the double ring ceremony. Mrs. Gordon McSwain, organist, of Arcadia, Fla., and aunt of the groom, and Harry Best, vocalist of Jacksonville, cousin of the bride, presented a program of nuptial music. Mr. Best sang "You're In My Heart Alone" and "My Garden".

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a gown of chantilly lace over satin with fitted bodice; which formed a point extending into a bouffant skirt, tapering into a semi formal train. The sheer nylon yoke was attached to the bodice by means of a lacing a deep V neckline and long sleeves ended in calla lily points over the wrists. Her finger tip veil of illusion fell from a matching lace cloche embroidered with seed pearls. She carried a cascading bouquet of white roses and stephanotis.

The groom's father was best man. Ushers were Commander E. B. Gibson, Jr., of Washington, D. C., Hugh G. Pate, Goldsboro, Joseph Vance III, Old Church, Va., Paul Best Berry, John Jenkins, Jr., and William Best of Warsaw.
