Bank To Open In Beulaville Saturday Duplin County Farm Bureau In Membership Drive

Commissioners To Meet Monday For Further Hospital Study

1500 Members Is Goal Will Rogers Talks To Group

By J. E. Grady

The Duplin County Farm Bureau the only organization in the county that can officially speak for the farmers in governmental affairs, is now in the midst of a membership campaign. LeRoy Simmons, ag gressive president of the organization is pleading for Duplin to go all out in its drive to obtain the goal of 1500 and even another 1. goal of 1500 and even another 1, moral and financial backing to this organization. It would have been fine if many of our citizens who are not farmers directly could have attended the meeting of the execu-tive and membership drive com-mittees held in the Kenansville school lunch room Monday night. About 50 farmers and businessmen About 50 farmers and businessmen gathered there for a dinner meeting and to launch the 1951 membership drive. LeRoy Simmons opened the meeting and presided. He touched an intresting note when he said that most folks look at the farmer drive to the tobacco market and think he is salting down thousands of dellars. Few realize the tremendous amount of expense the farmer has to go to in raising the crop. The farmer gets less than half of what the tobacco brings when it finally reaches the consumer.

Will Roger, treasurer of the N. C. Farm Bureau, was present and made an impressive speech on the accomplishments of the Farm Bureau showing with charts its growth and development, what it has at the professional and businessman of complished.

The group left the meeting high... ly enthusiastic over possibilities of going over the top in the member. ship drive. Dues are nominally low and it is hoped that everyone in the county, white and colored, will get behind it and shove. Duplin could and should have at least 5,... on the county of the county of
