Woman's Club Holds Regular Meeting

The regular monthly meeting of the Kenansville Woman's Club was held on last Thursday night, October 25, 1951 at 7:30 in the lodge building. The president, Mrs. Alton Newton, presided over the business session. A goodly number were present, also several visitors, among whom were eight Girl Scouts of the Intermediate Troop who had just changed to Mrs. N. B. Boney. After the singing of one verse of America followed by the pledge to the flag of the USA in unison, the National Anthem was sung. Sylvia Gooding acted as Flag Bearer. The topic discussed by the girls and

Girl Scouts Have Meeting

The weekly meeting of the Intermediate Troop of the Kenansville Girl Scouts held in the Home Economics Department of the local school on Tuesday night after school closed. A new senior patrol leader and scribe were chosen by the girls using the secret ballot method. Barbara Mitchell was chosen leader to succeed Millie Burch and Patsy Quinn was named scribe to follow Dianne Stokes. A hike is being planned for the next meeting. Since this is Girl Scout week, they went to church together last Sunday in order to start the week off right. Betty Ingram passed off her First Aid Badge this week and Doris Calson passed hers off last week. That makes six members of their First Aid Badge work recently. After several games, led by Sylvia Gooding, were played, the hostesses, Barbara Mitchell and her mother served delicious refreshments.

O. P. S. Issues New Regulations For Retail Sales Of New Automobiles

RALTIGH — The Office of Price Stabilization has issued a regulation covering the retail sale of new automobiles that is designed to give every possible protection to buyers by spelling out all charges that enter into the seller's price, Alton G. Marchison, Acting District Director, stated here last week.

The regulation, Ceiling Price Regulation 83, is effective immediately. By November 1 every retail dealer must post in a conspicuous place on his premises an 18 by 24 inch notice stating the make, body style, line or series and model of each new automobile offered for sale and the ceiling price.

The ceiling price posted on the notice must show the following facts:

- 1. The basic ceiling price for each particular body style in each line or series;
- 2. The charge for transportation;
- 3. The charge for Federal excise tax;
- 4. The charge for state or local taxes;
- 5. The charge for handling and delivery; and
- 6. The total ceiling price.

In addition OPS requires the dealer to also post a copy of the special order issued by OPS establishing the ceiling price for extra, special or optional equipment, preparation and condition charges, finance charges, and allowance for used car if traded as part payment for the new automobile and the amount of cash payment.

Many games were played in which all persons participated, after which the banquet supper was enjoyed by all.

Annual Husband Wife Banquet

The annual husband and wife banquet was held recently by the Wallace Home Demonstration club at the Wallace school. The highlight of the occasion was an address by Miss Garris, vocational home economics teacher at the Charity High school. Miss Garris pointed out the value of home demonstration work and how home economics is making its unique contribution in our changing world.

The table was beautifully decorated by the decorating committee. Equally as beautiful were the club members dressed in their evening gowns which they had made for the occasion.

Many games were played in which all persons participated, after which the banquet supper was enjoyed by all.
