PTA Met Monday

Magnolia PTA held its regular meeting Monday night in the luncheon room with about 50 members present.

Mrs. C. H. Pope was in charge of the program. Mrs. Creto Merritt read the Christmas story from Luke which was followed by a poem "When I Think of Christmas" by Barbara Tucker. Mrs. Pope spoke on Christmas customs in other lands after which Mrs. Paul Tucker gave a reading "When Christmas Comes".

After the program refreshments were served to the group and then they were invited into the Home Ec. Department for an exhibit of the girls' work. Many interesting and attractive things were on display.

The PTA now has a membership of 62.
