Dies In Virginia

Ashland, Va., Jan. 9—Private funeral services for Miss Florence Buford Trevillian, long prominent in Ashland's church, civic and social affairs, who died at her home on Virginia Street Wednesday, following an illness of several months, were conducted from the residence on Thursday afternoon at 3:30 by her pastor, Dr. Robert Parker, of the Methodist church, assisted by the Rev. Jerry M. Newbold of Warsaw, N. C. Interment in Woodland cemetery here.

The daughter of the late Thomas Buckner Trevillian and the late Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Blount Trevillian was born at Verdon, Hanover County, Virginia and had lived at Ashland since infancy. She was a charter member and past president of the Ashland Garden Club, was treasurer of the Hanover Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy at the time of her death, which office she has held for twenty-five years, and was a member of the Hanover Branch Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities. She was a consistent member of the Duane Memorial Methodist Church on the campus of Randolph-Macon College and was active in all of its organizations. Miss Trevillian is survived by four sisters: Mrs. F. W. Marine, Jacksonville, N. C.; Miss Elizabeth Mayo Trevillian, Mrs. George W. Davis both of Ashland, and Mrs. John W. Best, Warsaw, N. C. and one brother, Edward B. Trevillian, Falls Church, Virginia; and a number of nieces and nephews.

4-H Members Help Keep State Green

North Carolina 4-H Club members are doing their part to help keep the Tar Heel State Green. So far this year 4-H boys and girls have planted a quarter of a million loblolly pine seedlings furnished them by the North Carolina Pulp Company. In all, 187 members in 27 counties have ordered 250,450 seedlings. Other 4-Hers who would like to plant loblolly seedlings this season should get their orders in right away, says John E. Ford, assistant forester for the State College Extension Service. The seedlings are offered free to both white and Negro club members in Caswell, Guilford, Davidson, Rowan, Cabarrus, Mecklenburg, Gaston, and all counties east of this line. Ford says any 4-H'er in this area
