Mount Olive is welcoming all its neighbors this week. May 15-17, are the dates on which the First Annual Pickle Festival will be held. As you know, Mount Olive is known as 'The Pickle Capital of the South' and rightly so. There will be something going on every minute.

The big show opens with a Grand Parade at 3 P.M. on Thursday with bands, beauties, floats and glamour. Edwards Military Institute and Oak Ridge Military Academy along with other bands will furnish marching music for the parade.

Later in the afternoon the first of three drawings for free prizes to be given festival guests will be held at 5.45. These prizes will include a $150 washing machine.

On Friday there will be a pie-eating contest for boys up to 10 years of age at 4 p.m. on Center Street. That afternoon there will be another drawing for prizes which will include a $65 watch and a $50 savings bond.

Friday night beginning at 7 p.m. the fire department will sponsor a horse show at the high school field with all proceeds going to J. R. Grady Com.

Beauty contestants are urged to register with the Manager of the Chamber of Commerce by May 14. She must be a regularly registered student in a high school in either Wayne, Duplin, Sampson, Johnston or Lenoir Counties.

That's the program — more or less. You ought to go and see what it is all about.

June is National Dairy Month. Southern farmers with small woodlots can help control the Southern pine beetle by felling trees as soon as they are known to be infested and turning them into lumber, pulpwood, or firewood. If the trees are big enough for lumber, the logs should be sawed immediately and the slabs should be burned. If the trees have value only as firewood or pulp, the bark should be peeled from the trees and burned.

TOWN ORDINANCE

The Mayor then stated that in his opinion that it would be proper for the Town of Kenansville to levy a tax upon the owner of each dog within the limits of the Town of Kenansville.

After a full discussion, with all members of the Town Board of Commissioners present, it was moved, seconded and carried that:

From and after the date of the enactment of this ordinance, a tax of one ($1.00) Dollar shall be levied upon any firm, person, or corporation owning or keeping a male dog in the limits of the Town of Kenansville, N. C. and likewise a tax of two ($2.00) Dollars shall be levied against any person, firm or corporation owning or keeping a female dog within the Town of Kenansville, provided, however, a levy of one half of said sum shall be made for the remaining portion of the year of 1952.

Upon the payment of the tax as aforesaid a tag will be issued to the owner of such dog, showing said tax to have been paid, and such tag shall be displayed upon said animal at all times whether said dog is on or off the owners premises;

For the purpose of determining liability hereunder, any person, firm, or corporation owning or keeping a dog on the first day of each calendar year, shall be subject to the provision hereof;

The tax levied herein is annual and shall be paid in each and every calendar year until this ordinance is revealed.

Any person violating the provision of this article shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined of amount not exceeding Five ($5.00) Dollars or imprisonment not exceeding thirty (30) days.

This Ordinance shall be in full force after June 1st 1952. This April 7th, 1952.

Governor W. Kerr Scott and Commissioner of Agriculture L. Y. Ballentine will each deliver timely talks and review the parade.

The mysterious "Miss Sweet Pickle" will present the Governor with an exaggerated replica of a cucumber at the conclusion of the parade.

Later in the afternoon the first of three drawings for free prizes to be given festival guests will be held at 5.45. These prizes will include a $150 washing machine.

On Friday there will be a pie-eating contest for boys up to 10 years of age at 4 p.m. on Center Street. That afternoon there will be another drawing for prizes which will include a $65 watch and a $50 savings bond.
