

Miss Polly Brown Becomes Bride Of Frank Thomas In Wedding June 6th.

Miss Polly Fairior Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William D. Brown of Beaufort, became the bride of Frank Jerome Thomas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Faxon Thomas of Beaufort, Friday afternoon at 5:00 in the Beaufort Baptist Church. Rev. A. L. Brown, Pastor, officiated at a double ring ceremony.

A program of nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Vann Muriel, pianist, of Louisville, Kentucky and Conrad Sloan, soloist, of Chincapin. Traditional wedding marches were used.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina length dress of embeaded organdy with rhinestones ornamenting the bodice. The full skirt was edged with chantilly lace. She wore organdy mitts and her shoulder length veil of illusion was gathered from a cap of matching organdy and edged in chantilly lace. She carried a white prayer book topped with a white purple-throated orchid and showered with stephanotis and ribbon.

Miss Mary Quinn Brown, sister of the bride, was maid-of-honor. She wore a pink organdy dress designed along the same lines as that of the bride. She wore matching headpiece and mitts and carried a nosegay of blue summer flowers.

Eugene Whaley of Rockingham, brother-in-law of the groom, was best man. Ushers were Bonnie Thomas, brother of the groom; Cecil Miller, brother-in-law of the bride; Macon Brown, cousin of the bride; and Clinton Campbell of Beaufort.

The soloist, Conrad Sloan, sang "O Sweet Mystery of Life" and, as a benediction, "The Lord's Prayer".

Vows were spoken before a background of palms in front of which were candelabra holding white tapers and baskets of white gladioli, and under an arch entwined with spring greenery.

The mother of the bride wore a navy crepe dress with white accessories, and an orchid corsage.

Mrs. Thomas, the mother of the groom, wore a navy dress with white accessories and a purple orchid corsage.

Following the ceremony the couple received in the vestibule of the church. For traveling the bride wore a navy suit with white accents and a white orchid.

Mrs. Thomas is a graduate of East Carolina College and has been a member of the Chincapin School faculty for the past year. M. Thomas attended Beaufort High School and served four years with the Navy. He is engaged in farming. The couple will make their home in Beaufort.

Following the wedding rehearsal, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Miller and Miss Mary Brown entertained the wedding party at the Miller home.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller greeted the guests.

The home thrown enroute held lovely arrangements of summer flowers. The mantle was flanked with ivy and Magnolias flanked with lighted green tapers in double candelabras.

The refreshment table was covered in a handmade linen cut work and centered with pink and white mixed summer flowers flanked with white candles in crystal holders.

The three tiered wedding cake embossed with green and pink lovely arrangements of summer flowers. The mantle was flanked with ivy and Magnolias flanked with lighted green tapers in double candelabras.

The bride and groom elect presented gifts to members of the wedding party.

Attending were the wedding party, families and close friends.

Bride Elect Feled

Miss Faye Quinn, bride elect, was honored prior to her wedding when Mrs. Herman Miller, Mrs. Ashe Miller and Mrs. Murphy Thompson entertained in the high school lunch room. Mrs. Ashe Miller greeted the guests.

Arrangements of sweet peas and larkspur entwined with ivy were used in decoration.

Miss Quinn was presented a corsage and gift in crystal by the hostesses, who also presented corsages to her mother, Mrs. Tharon Quinn and Mrs. Lou Belle Williams, mother of the groom elect. Miss Polly Brown, bride elect of June was remembered with a corsage and gift.

Enjoyable features of the evening were the several contests and games with prizes being awarded winners. In a contest "Dedicated to Faye," Mrs. Nelson Carlton was the lucky party, while Mrs. Maurice Jackson was winner in the contest, "A Love Story in the Forest Primeval." Several others were winners at Bingo and in offering receipts to the bride to be on "How to Hold Her Temper When Hubby Arrives Home Late."

Following the entertainment the honoree was presented a shower of gifts in crystal. The gifts had been placed previously on a lace covered table all being wrapped in white and tied with pink and green ribbons. Lighted green candles formed a background. At the opposite end of the room the lace covered refreshment table had a centerpiece of a half circle of green lighted tapers surrounding a low oblong crystal bowl holding sweet peas. From one end of the table Mrs. Herman Miller served pear salad on lettuce topped with whipped cream and green cherried further emphasizing the bridal motif. Mrs. Ashe Miller poured tea.

Completing the refreshments were cheese wafers, olives and ham wedges and salted nuts. Assisting in serving were Mrs. Ivy Nethercutt, Mrs. William Bostic, and Mr. Maurice Jackson.

Mrs. Anna Britt of Mt. Olive, Mrs. Paul Hunter and Mrs. Nelson Carlton of Warsaw were out of town guests.

PRAYER TO PERSEPHONE

Be to her Persephone,
All the things I might not be;
Take her head upon your knee;
She that was so proud and wild,
Flippant, arrogant, and free,
That had no need of me,
Is a little lonely child
Lost in Hell—Persephone,
Take her head upon your knee;
Say to her, "My dear, my dear,
It is not so dreadful here."
