Miss Mary Theresa Johnson Is Married To James Bryan In Wilmington

Miss Mary Theresa Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence B. Johnson, became the bride of James Graham Bryan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lucine Bryan, in a lovely afternoon ceremony at Trinity Methodist Church on July 12 at 5 o'clock.

Dr. H. I. Glass, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony. The church was decorated with kenta palms and large arrangements of white flowers. Two candelabras were on either side of the altar.

Music was furnished by Mrs. Harris Bullard, organist, who played the traditional wedding music. Sam Taylor, vocalist, sang "When I have Sung My Songs To You," "Thine Alone" and "Oh Perfect Love."

Lace and Nylon
The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a dress of chantilly lace and nylon with a lace fitted bodice and long sleeves of lace point. The sheer yoke was fashioned into a sweetheart neckline embroidered with seed pearls. The skirt was of double net gathered at the waist, and she wore a short train. Her headpiece was crown shaped and covered with seed pearls and rhinestones with a double nylon net veil. She carried a cascade shower bouquet of feathered white carnations.

Miss Mattie Florence Johnson, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a shell pink dress of lace and nylon with a fitted bodice and double nylon net skirt over taffeta. Her hair arrangement was of pink and blue flowers. She carried a bouquet of pink asters and carnations and blue delphiniums tied with blue satin ribbon.

Attending as bridesmaid was Miss Wilma Gladys Johnson, another sister of the bride. She wore an ice blue dress of nylon and lace with a fitted bodice and double nylon net skirt gathered over taffeta. In her hair she wore an arrangement of pink and blue flowers. Her bouquet was like the honor attendant's except tied with pink satin ribbon.

Best Man
Lucine L. Bryan was his son's best man. Ushers were: Gordon M. Sanderson, of Rosehill, cousin of the bride, Lewis Venters, formerly of Wilmington, Joseph H. Weyers, formerly of Wilmington.

The bride's mother wore a pink lace street length dress with white accessories and wore a corsage of white carnations. Mrs. Bryan, mother of the groom, wore an aqua lace dress with white accessories and a corsage of pale pink carnations.

A reception was held in the recreation room of the church, which was decorated with garlands of greenery. The bride's table held an arrangement of white flowers in a crystal bowl and a three-tiered wedding cake.

Serving punch at the reception were Miss Ann Anderson and Mrs. Joseph H. Weyers. Miss Pat Wilson presided at the bride's book.

Immediately after the reception the couple left for a short wedding trip to Myrtle Beach, S. C. The bride wore a navy blue crepe dress and a gold linen jacket with navy blue accessories. She wore a corsage of white carnations taken from her bridal bouquet.

The couple will be at home at 2835 Jefferson Street in Wilmington.

Out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Harry Potter and son of Jacksonville, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Sanderson of Rose Hill, Manley Sanderson of Rose Hill, Miss Sybil Oglesby of Morehead City, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Johnson and children, Cordell, Colbey and Oletta of Kenansville, Mrs. Robert Fields and daughter, Bobbie Jean of Rose Hill, Louis Venters of Fort Dix, N. J., Corporal William B. Macaroni Salad and Iced Coffee for Hot Weather Supper

BY DOROTHY MADDOX

HERE'S a fine supper for outdoor eating — porch, terrace or garden. It is satisfying and can be almost entirely prepared in the morning hours and kept in the refrigerator until supper time. The whole family will enjoy it.

Vegetable juice, macaroni chef's salad, relishes, garlic bread, coffee jelly with bananas, iced coffee.

The hot coffee, which you will convert into iced coffee, can be made several hours before serving, and cooled in a non-metallic container. If you prefer, make it double-strength at the last minute and pour into ice-filled glasses. Be sure the coffee is fresh and strong, and that you serve it with plenty of ice in the tallest, frostiest glasses you can manage. Serve with cream and a pitcher of simple syrup or sugar.

Macaroni Chef's Salad (6 generous servings)
One 9-ounce package elbow macaroni, 12 stuffed olives, sliced; ¼ salad bowl with salad greens. Toss with Russian dressing.

Coffee Jelly With Bananas (6 servings)
One and one-half tablespoons unflavored gelatin, 3 cups strong, hot coffee, 3 tablespoons sherry, ¼ cup strong, cold coffee, ½ cup sugar, 2 bananas cut in ½-inch slices.

Cook macaroni in boiling, salted water until tender; drain, rinse with hot water; chill. Combine macaroni, olives, cheese, bologna, tomatoes and cucumber. Place in Softened gelatin in cold coffee, dissolve in hot coffee. Add sugar, stirring until dissolved; add sherry. Chill until set. Place sliced bananas in serving dishes, cover with coffee jelly. Serve with light cream.

Looking for substantial but easy to get luncheon dishes? Well, try these. They're good.

Fluffy Tomato Rabbit (4 servings)

One can (1½ cups) condensed tomato soup, 2 cups shredded American cheese, ½ teaspoon dry mustard, ¼ teaspoon Worcestershire sauce, 2 eggs, separated; toast or crackers.

Heat soup slowly; add cheese and heat until melted, stirring constantly. Add mustard and Worcestershire sauce to beaten egg yolks; stir into hot mixture. Gently fold in beaten egg whites and heat thoroughly. Serve on hot toast or crackers.

Baked Eggs in Tomato Sauce (4 servings)

One can (1½ cups) condensed tomato soup, 4 eggs, 2 tablespoons butter, black pepper to taste, parsley.

Four ¼ can tomato soup into each of four buttered baking cups or muffin tins. Break an egg into each; dot each with ½ tablespoon of butter and sprinkle with pepper. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) for 20 minutes. Garnish with parsley.

Engagements Announced.....

Mr. and Mrs. William Harvey Pope of Rose Hill announce the engagement of their daughter, Huldya Carolyn, to the Reverend Joseph Meek Goode Warner of Charlotte, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Oliver Warner of Greensboro. The wedding will take place the seventh week of August in the Rose Hill Methodist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Latham of Rose Hill announce the engagement of their daughter Barbara Anne, to Samuel Henry Johnson of Charleston, S. C. only son of Mr. and Mrs. Elliot W. Johnson of DeWay. The wedding will take place August 30 in the Rose Hill Mt. Zion Presbyterian Church.

Father Of Bride Officiates In Hale-Coates Wedding Ceremony

With her father as the officiating minister, Miss Margaret Quinn Coates, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Edwin S. Coates, became the bride of Charles Herbert Hale on Thursday in a double ring ceremony at 4:30 in the Farmville Presbyterian Church, of which the Rev. Mr. Coates is the pastor.

The bridegroom is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Herbert Hale of Scotland Neck.

Mrs. G. Alex Rouse at the organ and Elbert C. Holmes, baritone, presented a program of wedding music.

The bride entered the church with Edwin Massengill of Raleigh, a cousin. She wore a strapless ballerina length gown of white tulle and Chantilly lace, with a lace bodice jacket and a high collar with buttons down the front. The bouffant skirt of tulle over satin was banded with wide matching tulle shoulder-length veil of imported illusion was attached to a lace cloche trimmed with seed pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of Starlite white roses and stephanotis, centered with a white orchid.

Miss Henrietta Cooper of Wallace, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Evans, Jr., of Hartsville, S. C. and Miss Jen Esley were bridesmaids. Their strapless gowns of mauve nylon net were appliqued with lace leaves and made with fitted bodices and bouffant skirts, ballerina-length. They wore matching stoles, handkerchiefs, and carried arm bouquets of pink and lavender asters tied with ribbon.

Dr. G. Fred Hale of Raleigh, uncle of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were George C. Green, Jr., Sam M. Hanft and Henry Gray Shelton of Speed. The mother of the bride wore a powder blue lace and chiffon dress with pink accessories and an orchid at her shoulder. Mrs. Spencer Lewis of Scotland Neck, aunt of the bridegroom, wore a navy sheer dress with French blue trim and a corsage of orchids.

Following the ceremony, the parents of the bride entertained at a reception in the Fellowship Hall of the Church. Following the reception, the couple left for a trip through the mountains of the Virginias, after which they will be at home in Scotland Neck. For travel, the bride wore a champagne silk shantung suit with a heavenly blue blouse and brown and white accessories, and an orchid corsage.

The bride was graduated from East Carolina College, Greenville, receiving an A. B. degree in primary education. Since graduation she has taught in the Scotland Neck schools.

Mr. Hale attended State College, Raleigh, with courses in civil engineering. He served in the United States Army during the last World War. He has held for several years the position of forester for the Riverside Manufacturing Co. in Murfreesboro.

The bride's mother was the former Miss Geneva Quinn of a family long prominent in Duplin County Society. She is a sister of Mrs. W. J. Pickett of Kenansville, Mrs. J. B. Cooper of Wallace, and J. L. Quinn of Chiquapi; and the aunt of Mrs. Vance Gavin, Mrs. D. H. McKay, Mrs. A. R. Bland, II and Miss Martha Pickett of Kenansville and Miss Henrietta Cooper of Wallace.

Amos Brinson hosted the regular quarterly meeting on Friday night at a dinner at his home.

Those present were F. W. McGowan; J. O. Stokes, J. B. Wallace, Ellis Vestal, W. M. Brinson and the Reverend Lauren Sharp. The host served barbecue chicken, butter beans, tomatoes, cole slaw, corn on the cob, potato salad, home-
