Faison Girl, Albertson Boy Take Swim Honors At Lake Tut Sunday Afternoon

Lake Tut is a spot in Duplin that people are visiting frequently these hot days. Not only people from Duplin but those from miles away.

On Sunday afternoon, the weekly swimming contest was held. In the girls contest Marion Kolmar of Faison won first prize, Anita Shelton, of Spartanburg, S. C. second prize and Pauline Ayers of Wallace, third prize.

In the boys division, age 16 and lower, the winners were: Faison D. Smith, Albertson, N. C., first prize; Bob Salmon, Wallace, second prize; Ned Ayers, Wallace, third prize and Thomas Shepard of Chingupin winning fourth place with a 25 yd. distance to swim.

In the men's group, there was a repeat of last Sunday's winners, Browne Salmon, Wallace, first prize; Ed Livesay, Wallace, second prize; and Fred Parcell of Camp Lejeune, third prize.

Come on out to Lake Tut, Rose Hill next Sunday and see or enter the swimming contest.

Last Wednesday night was Jitterbug Night. Crowds gathered to watch the contestants. Betty Jean Sandlin and Archie Muldrow took first prize with Susie Griffin and Leroy Williams winning second prize.

The Jitterbug contest is held each Wednesday night. Don't forget to see the fish feed from 8 til 10.

Church Women Hold Meeting

The regular monthly business meeting of the Women of the Church was held Monday evening, July 21st in the Fellowship room with Mrs. Clayton Herring, President, presiding.

The meeting was called to order and opened with a song "Day is Dying in the West" sung by all, followed by prayer.

After the minutes of the last meeting were read, a monthly statement of the treasurer was received and reports of each circle chairman was given.

It was announced that the duffie bags filled with warm clothing for church world service, be sent as early as possible.

The women of the church were highly commended for their service in preparing and serving dinner to the men of the Presbytery.
