

Magnolia News

Personals

Mrs. Travis Purvis and daughter Sarah Beth of Florence, S. C. are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Roland Wilson and other friends and relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill King and children of Tarboro visited his mother, Mrs. Maude King last Sunday afternoon. Mrs. King returned home with them for a visit.

Mrs. A. Q. Smith and children Bobby and Butch, Mrs. Bill Michael and Billy, and Mrs. Annie Mae O'Leary and Harriet spent Sunday afternoon at White Lake.

Joe Wilson, USA, Fort Dix, S. C., spent last weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Cooper of Raleigh were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Sasser and family Sunday.

Austin Baker, USA, Fort Dix, S. C., spent last week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Baker.

Mr. and Mrs. James E. Jones and children of New Bern spent last week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Pope.

Jim Barden of Wilmington visited his sister Mrs. Perry Heath last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Guy and son Shelton spent Sunday afternoon at White Lake.

Hil's Brown spent Friday night with Carolyn Sasser.

Fred Pickett, Hilda Brown, Susan Brown and Darwin Evans spent Sunday afternoon at White Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Smith and son Gary visited with her parents Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Taylor in Peaderies last Sunday.

Carolyn Sasser, Jimmy Brown, Barbara Tucker, Bessie Wilson, and Betty Jean Johnson enjoyed swimming at the river Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Jeanette Hamilton is at home for the summer. She will teach the second grade at Rose Hill this year.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Grubbs and daughter Joan of Calypso were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. N. T. Pickett Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Croom and Miss Helen Hunt spent the week end at White Lake. Mrs. Croom remained through Monday and Monday night in order to attend the birthday party of Mrs. Lou Hofter of Wallace.

Mrs. Annie Mae O'Leary and daughter Harriet have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. Q. Smith and family and Mr. and Mrs. N. T. Pickett and family. She left Monday for a few days visit with relatives in Hillsboro before continuing to Wilmington for a few days, and then leaving the following Monday for her home in Zephyr Hills, Florida.

Clyde Kearns Is With Whiteville Warehouse Firm

Perkins and Newman tobacco warehouses 1 and 2 in Whiteville are already filling up for opening day. They are not full yet according to reports and will sell some Duplin tobacco on opening day this year.

They have a sale every sales day during the season. Bill and Harlan Perkins and N. C. Newman are proprietors. Their representative in Duplin is Clyde Kearns of Kenansville. The Perkins and Newman firm have been in Whiteville several years and they report more Duplin tobacco is sold on their floors each year. There must be a reason. Satisfied customers always return and bring along new customers.

Moore's In Whiteville Is All Set

Moore's Warehouse in Whiteville will have a tobacco auction sale every day. They invite you to bring your tobacco to the leading warehouse in Whiteville where you Run, Bernice Thompson of Kin- ston, Route 1, and J. R. Thompson of Maysville, Route 1; two daughters, Mrs. Clyde Walker of Duplin County and Mrs. Jack Vernon of Kinston; one brother, Jeff Harris on of Kinston, Route 1; two sisters, Mrs. Ernest Smith of Kinston, R. 5, and Mrs. Kendall Riggs of Tarboro.

Mrs. Etta Whitfield
Mrs. Etta Whitfield, 68, of the Indian Springs community in Wayne County died at 1 a. m. Tuesday in Wayne Memorial Hospital, Goldsboro, after two weeks' illness. Surviving are the husband, Dan Whitfield, one son, Ernest of Deep Run; one daughter, Mrs. James Deaver of Dudley, Route 1; three brothers, S. B. Newman of Calypso, Seth Newman, Rocky Mount and Ernest Newman, Mt. Olive. Funeral services were held Wednesday at 3:30 p. m. at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Deaver, with the Rev. F. C. Johnson of Goldsboro officiating. Burial was in the Casey Cemetery near the old Mt. Olive country club site. Mrs. Whitfield was a member of the North East Free Will Baptist Church.

Robert A. Lanier
Robert Hayes Lanier, 74, of Wallace, died Monday at James Walker Memorial Hospital in Wilmington, after a month's illness. Funeral services were held Tuesday at 4 p. m. at the home of his son, LeRoy Lanier, of Wallace. The Rev. W. B. Hood, pastor of the Wallace Presbyterian Church was in charge and burial followed in Rockfish Cemetery, with the Wallace Masonic Lodge members in charge there. He was a member of the Presbyterian Church and the Masonic Lodge and for 40 years was connected with the Hilton Lumber Company before he retired. Surviving are four sons, LeRoy Lanier, Wallace; Homer Lanier, Wilmington; William Lanier of Cleveland, Fla.; and Robert Lanier, Belle Glade, Fla.; one daughter, Miss Jessie Lanier, Wallace.

Mrs. Lillian H. Thompson
Mrs. Lillian Harrison Thompson, 63, of the Deep Run section, died in Lenoir Memorial Hospital about 11 p. m. Monday, after a brief illness. She was the widow of W. M. Jason Thompson of Lenoir County. She made her home with a grandson, Paul Thompson, whom she reared. Funeral services were conducted at the home of the grandson at 4 p. m. Wednesday, with her pastor, the Rev. Ben Daugherty, Free Will Holiness minister of Goldsboro, officiating. Interment was in West View Cemetery. Survivors include four sons, James and Trop Thompson of Deep

SIMIAN SCHOLAR—Pondering some world-shaking subject such as more rapid methods of peeling bananas, Bonzo makes a perfect picture of a philosopher in his Hollywood study. Posing with a glamorous film career, Bonzo still has time to devote on global affairs.

Outlaw's Bridge

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Outlaw and baby of Raleigh, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Hawley of Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Sutton and daughters of Rone's Chapel were among visitors in the home of Mrs. Katie Outlaw Sunday.

Paul Outlaw is still a patient at the Veterans Hospital, Fayetteville. Mr. Outlaw is a veteran of World War I.

Mrs. W. H. Skeels of Rocky Mt. was a recent visitor with Rev. and Mrs. L. C. Prater at the Parsonage.

M. J. Blizard lost a tobacco barn by fire last week.

Miss Maggie Stroud of Raleigh was a week end visitor with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Nichols and Dennis Nichols of Sims were brief visitors here Sunday afternoon. Miss Rachel Outlaw returned home with them. They will visit parts of Western North Carolina this week.

Dr. Russell E. Outlaw of Morehead City visited his parents Mr. and Mrs. Luther Outlaw Saturday night and Sunday.

Mrs. Ben Frank Outlaw attended funeral services for Mrs. Mortimer Maxwell in Kinston Saturday.

Mrs. James Parker and Jimmy spent several days last week in Mt. Olive.

Gerald Simmons Is Attending FFA Convention in Raleigh This Week

Mr. and Mrs. Moses Mewborn and Mrs. Pat Sutton Robinson of Goldsboro former residents here, were visitors at the church services Sunday.

Members of the Cub Scouts and their families enjoyed a picnic at Lake Tat Sunday.

Paul Outlaw is still a patient at the Veterans Hospital, Fayetteville. Mr. Outlaw is a veteran of World War I.

Mrs. W. H. Skeels of Rocky Mt. was a recent visitor with Rev. and Mrs. L. C. Prater at the Parsonage.

M. J. Blizard lost a tobacco barn by fire last week.

Miss Maggie Stroud of Raleigh was a week end visitor with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Nichols and Dennis Nichols of Sims were brief visitors here Sunday afternoon. Miss Rachel Outlaw returned home with them. They will visit parts of Western North Carolina this week.

Dr. Russell E. Outlaw of Morehead City visited his parents Mr. and Mrs. Luther Outlaw Saturday night and Sunday.

Mrs. Ben Frank Outlaw attended funeral services for Mrs. Mortimer Maxwell in Kinston Saturday.

Mrs. James Parker and Jimmy spent several days last week in Mt. Olive.

Moore's Warehouse is located one block in front of the post office. More construction work has been done to this warehouse making it more convenient than ever.

A. H. Bert Moore is owner and operator with C. C. Mason, assistant. Clyde Jeff Jeffcoat is floor manager, George T. Pogram, bookkeeper; J. M. Fleming, office manager; Leonard Nunn, Calculator; Coon Nunn, calculator; Tom Bracey, ticket marker; F. W. Hedgcock, Solicitor and sales service; Mrs. Charlie Mason, clerk and Mrs. C. E. Jeffcoat clerk.

Sid Cutts and Romeo Colwell, Veteran Auctioneers, along with numerous assistants on the Sales Floor are constantly on the alert to promote and maintain satisfactory sales.

COUNTY DEATHS

Parham B. Southerland
Parham B. Southerland, 57, died at his home near Chiquippin late Thursday, July 24th. Funeral services were held at the home Friday at 4 p. m. in the family cemetery near the home. He was a veteran of World War I and a member of the American Legion. Surviving are six brothers, W. T. J. R. L. N. of Beaulaville, J. E. of Wilmington, L. H. and A. W. of the home; one sister, Mrs. Frank Brinson of Beaulaville.

Allison Brown
Allison Brown, 44, of the Sumnerin Cross Roads community, died Tuesday July 22nd at 5:30 a. m. in a Raleigh hospital. He had been in declining health for several months. Surviving are his mother, Mrs. Zura S. Brown of Sumnerin's; one brother, J. C. Brown, Greenville, S. C.; three sisters, Mrs. Foy Goodwin of Sumnerin's, Mrs. G. R. Henderson, Columbia, S. C. Funeral services were held Thursday at 5 p. m. at the home of his sister, Mrs. Goodman, in the home community with the Rev. R. H. Collins, pastor of the Friendship Methodist Church, of which Mr. Brown was a member, officiating. Burial was in the family cemetery on the Curtis Anderson farm nine miles east of Warsaw.

John W. Thigpen
John William Thigpen, 72, Deep Run farmer, died at his home at 8:15 p. m. Sunday after a long illness. He was a member of Gray Branch Free Will Baptist Church. Funeral services were held at the home Tuesday at 3 p. m. with burial in the family cemetery nearby. His pastor, the Rev. Charlie Hamilton of Fountain, officiated. Surviving are three children by a former marriage, J. D., Mrs. Rodolph Deaver and Mrs. Joe Gillette, all of Deep Run; three grandsons, Cleveland, Island and Alex Thigpen all of Mt. Olive; and a sister, Mrs. Allen Gauthier of Goldsboro.

Zach Davis McWhorter
Clinton, formerly of Mt. Olive, died Sunday afternoon in Duke Hospital, Durham, after an illness of 24 hours. Surviving are his wife, the former Ann Caldwell of Pittsburgh, Pa.; three brothers, Davis

ANNOUNCEMENT

We now have with us Mr. Lawrence, who was with the Shell Grill in Wallace for 5 years, as our new Chef.

LAKE TUT

Rose Hill, N. C.

There's Real Economy Here!

Simply add a gallon of linseed oil to a gallon of Stag Semi-Paste Paint — and save substantially on your paint cost! Twelve beautiful colors—and white.

ONE GALLON MAKES TWO!

There's a Stag Paste of Equal for every purpose. Quality made since 1842.

• go farther!
• last longer!
• cost less!

Perkins Bros. & Newman

Warehouse No. 1 and No. 2

Opens Mon.

August 4th.

Sell Opening Day & Every Day

WE HAVE FLOOR SPACE TO SELL YOUR TOBACCO
BRING US YOUR FIRST LOAD

Perkins Bros. & Newman

BILL & HARLAN PERKINS and N. C. NEWMAN, PROP'S. PHONE 537

WHITEVILLE, N. C.

CLYDE KEARNS, KENANSVILLE, DUPLIN REPRESENTATIVE

Notice

In the absence of the minister, Rev. L. C. Prater who will be on vacation during the month of August, there will not be any preaching services. Services will be resumed the 1st Sunday night in September. The Sunday School will be in session.

Sgt. Roscoe Prater is visiting his parents at the parsonage having been discharged from the Air Corps July 17 in San Francisco, Calif. He had served nearly four years enlistment. The last seven months were spent on a Japanese Island just east of Pusan, Korea as a radar mechanic. He plans to re-enter the Alabama Polytechnic Institute at Auburn, Ala., in Sept. to study Electrical Engineering.

J. H. Parker was notified of the death of his cousin Luther Parker in Newport News, Va. Friday of last week. Mr. Parker had visited relatives here.

Rev. L. C. Prater was heard by a splendid congregation Sunday morning service. At the close of service there was one addition to the church membership.

32 Negro Girls And Boys From Duplin Attend The State 4-H Short Course

Thirty-two girls and boys from Duplin County attended the State 4-H Short Course this week accompanied by one adult leader and the county farm and home agents. Each of the 14 clubs were represented.

The group left the County on Monday morning via bus and arrived back Saturday morning. During the week, they attended classes in "Recreation", "Parliamentary Procedure", "Record Keeping", and "Good Manners". In addition to the classes, they heard addresses by Dr. Bluford, president of the college, Mrs. Hallie Wright prominent Greensboro citizen from Georgia and heard a report of the 4-H Regional Camp.

Recreation included a concert by the famous Knowles Duo, a picnic at Community Center, and a have its regular session each Sunday through August.

On Friday morning, an award ceremony for all Volunteer 4-H Club leaders was held at which time two hundred and sixty-six leaders from throughout the state were honored for leadership from 5 to 25 years.

Miss Charlena Chalmers of the Faison 4-H Club represented the county on the Talent Show with a piano solo, "Trees." She also appeared on a radio broadcast during the week.

The week was climaxed on Friday evening with the installation of officers and a candle lighting ceremony.

Most elm species — particularly the American and winged elm growing in the East, Midwest, and the South — are plagued with two diseases known as Dutch elm disease and elm phloem necrosis. Both are spread by insects.

SPECIALS

AT Johnson Cotton Company

- ARSENATE OF LEAD
- PARIS GREEN
- HAND AND HORSE DRAWN DUSTERS AND SPRAYERS
- TOBACCO STICKS
- TOBACCO SLEDS AND TRUCKS
- Special Price on Blue Ribbon Three And Four Ply TOBACCO TWINE, 5 Lb. Packages — $3.87 (TAX INCLUDED)
- TOBACCO BARN FLUES
- BUCKEYE TOBACCO CURING SYSTEMS
- THERMOMETERS

JOHNSON COTTON COMPANY Of Wallace, Inc.

WALLACE, N. C.

Cash If You Have It

Credit If You Need It