The Most Valuable Thing in Life

What is the most valuable thing in life? It has been said that good and loyal friends are. Yet, to hear some people talk, you'd think they wanted to stay 'poor' the rest of their life.

There's a way to win friends — and there's a way to lose them. Let's assume for a moment that you are a lucky person who has loads of friends and want to keep them. Then here is a formula to keep you from losing friends that perhaps you haven't heard about.

1. You wouldn't poison your friend's coffee with arsenic, so don't poison his mind with arsenic words.

2. You wouldn't steal your neighbor's automobile, so don't steal his reputation with idle words.

3. Before you uncork some 'language' don't just look at the label, but look inside the bottle.

4. Be sure you are perfect, yourself before pointing out the faults of others.

Robert Butler of Walter Butler's Shipbuilders, Inc. at Superior, Wis., was a genius at getting cooperation from his employees. How did he do it? By installing the motto throughout his shops:—If you can't write it and sign it—don't say it!

CONSOLIDATION OF SCHOOLS

I have been reading about consolidation of the small schools in North Carolina. I think we, the citizens of Magnolia township and our high school have one of the most unjustifiable, unnecessary and extravagant problems forced on us by the State Board of Education.

We have an adequate school building, a well equipped auditorium that will seat three or four hundred people, a gymnasium second largest in Duplin County yet, they are going to send our high school students to Rose Hill; to a school which is already full to capacity. I do not see any common business sense in such a set up.

If taxation without representation was 'tyranny' in 1812, WHY

BRRR—IT'S NICE—If you're interested in cool sleeping in hot weather, Betty Cox passes on her recipe. The blue-eyed blonde television actress puts sheets in the refrigerator before she leaves her New York apartment in the morning. Result: Cool sleeping on hottest night.

Art Display At D. E. Best Store

Mrs. Earl Huie who has been teaching an art class during the summer months has an art display at the D. E. Best store. Much originality is shown in this display and the pupils of Mrs. Huie should be congratulated on their fine work. Those who have work on display are Carol Baars, Fred Baars, Patsy Jo Smith, Leila Mae Phillips, Joyce Whittle, Keith Hobbs, Barbara Mitchell, Kenansville Emory.

Is it not tyranny in 1952. If we are living in a land of Democracy let the voice of the citizens be heard, not the voice of a few officials.
