Mrs. W. F. "Bud" Miller, News, Adv. Representative

Being able to speak several languages may be a timely necessity but being able to hold one's tongue in one language is a priceless gift of 'gab'.

Isn't it nice to do nothing and then just sit back and rest, and rest and rest, as—are you some of those who worry about getting nothing done? You know, worry is on the same category as a rocking chair, always going to and fro but never getting anywhere. Then why worry?

Monday morning blues might be averted by making sure you attend church and Sunday School on Sunday, doing a good deed for someone or, just by getting plenty of good rest the day before. Or the invention of a calendar.

I guess the mind is like the stomach. It's not how much you put inside of it that counts, but how much it can digest. Think of what might happen only for our own 'Still small voice.' You see one person may outwit another, but not all the others, but we are proud to admit that most of the people here and here or anywhere are most good people.

Ill health and sickness seems to be overwhelming the bright outlook here these past few weeks. We wonder if the recent hot weather has anything to do with it. If we wonder why the summer has been so hot, we can always attribute the sun to most of the cause of it, that is if we wonder why.

Mrs. Rudolph Futrel returned last week from several days at J.W.M. Hospital while under observation for nervous and intestinal troubles. Slightly improved but still very ill at her home.

Mrs. Jimmie Southerland, assistant P.O. mistress was rushed to a Kinston Hospital last Monday suffering from a terrific stomach and nervous disturbance of several days standing. Here's hoping she is well soon and back home.

Mr. Edwin Futrel visited a Fayetteville Veterans' hospital last week for a check up. Hope nothing serious.

Mrs. Ellis Williams spent several days recently with her brother Kenneth Pigford of Wallace, home after several days at J.W.M. Hospital in Wilmington.

Mr. Ora Register, who a slight touch of pneumonia recently has been able to be out and about once again.

Mr. Elliott Pickett, who has been in the Wilmington hospital for several weeks is home after being in an oxygen tent there suffering from a severe heart condition.

Mrs. R. G. Rhodes and Miss Bertha Rhodes of Richlands spent part of last week end with Mrs. Eula Sanderson, returning home later.

Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Sanderson and daughter Nellie, Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Maready and family are some of those attending the opening of the newly erected Meadow Brook, Drive in Theatre at Greenville. The Meadow Brook is owned and operated by Mr. T. F. Sanderson and H. J. Sanderson of Chinquapin and Wallace.

God gave us memory so that we might have roses in December—yet, people are so afraid. Fear, in its self in its broadest sense, is at the bottom of all our ill health and unhappiness in this world. What a world this would be if all the fears that exist in people's minds could be gotten together, placed in a permanent concentration camp until all of them died of starvation and lack of attention. Jesus said 'Be not afraid and Lo, I am with you always.'

Don't be afraid of not being able to have Turkey for Thanksgiving

In this community at least, this year. Those who are wondering about a shortage of the 'Symbol of Freedom' just pass on the Highway to Maple Hill on the farm of a Mr. Hollingsworth, where the field looks like a black ocean as far as the eyes can see, almost. It's almost unbelievable what a black cloud is hovering about.

The Stork is hovering dangerously low over the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. Byrd of here. The couple were given a shower last week by their neighbors where they received many useful gifts and was delighted with the surprises. Refreshments were served as appreciations.

Not since the 'Boston Tea Party' has a better cup of coffee been had than last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Sewell one morning in Wallace. Guests included Mrs. Vida Milloy, Mrs. J. D. Marshall, Mrs. Charles Brian and Mr. Irvin Winsor. Why? Could have been a special occasion. It was served in a five year old gift of China cups, straight from Japan from a son, Dan, embossed with the Dragon himself on the outside and the lady's face inside of the cup, (perhaps looking and listening) Let's hope not. Well, you know the routine over a morning cup of coffee. It's fun though.

We welcome back home Mr. Marvin Walls who has had to be admitted to McCain Hospital and pronounced well again and has just at Spencer after ten months of study, graduating with a grade A diploma. Mr. Walls will be at home here.

The happiest people here are Mr. and Mrs. Alton Lanier who's son, Cpl. Gerald Lanier returned home Saturday. Cpl. Lanier has been in Korea on duty for two years of Mrs. N. E. Gresham and family spent last week end at Norfolk, Va. and other northern points visiting friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Sewell, T. Sgt. and Mrs. J. D. Marshall and Major and Mrs. Charles Brian and son of Wallace visited friends and relatives here recently. T. Sgt. Marshall and Mrs. Marshall have just returned from Anchorage Alaska, while Major Charles Brian has been stationed in Waco, Texas, and all are home on leave at the Seawells. The Marshall's go to Savannah, Ga., while the Brian's headed for New York City for further duties, soon.

Mrs. Warren Henderson has returned home from a Kinston Hospital with her young son, Leland Harold Henderson, Jr. Both are doing fine.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Connelly and Mrs. Helen, Delores and Bobby are Reesly's of S. C. and Mrs. E. F. Simpson and children, Vickie and Genie of Dunn and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Cavanaugh of Rocky Mount have been guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Cavanaugh over the past week end.

Mrs. Hubert Lanier, Misses Sharon, Carol, and Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Batts and Reynolds are some of those who attended the S. S. Picnic dinner-over at Topsall Beach last week end—it was learned several had acquired a brand new sun tan. Catching fish, maybe.

We say enjoy life while here as we can't take it with us here. With high cost of living and low rate of giving—we don't expect the other fellow to take such with him, either. So many people speak of high tension and unrest. There's no need to be so keyed up at living it takes a sermon to put one to 'step. Gossip might ease the strain but it's like wet dirt thrown on a clean floor—it may not stick—but it leaves it's mark.

Politics may be corrupt, dirty and unfair but it still gives a man the chance to make his own opinion once in every four years—wonder how many do have the chance just how often—all in between.

I'm still living in hopes of seeing little individual cottages for each old person desiring one in this county—but so far it's only a dream here. But, I see according to the Morning Star—the development has been started elsewhere thank Heaven. It's a project everyone should enjoy seeing done for our old folks. Wouldn't it be nice to be the first in this territory to begin one?

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Huffman of Richlands and family, visited with Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Huffman Sunday afternoon.

Cpl. and Mrs. A. F. Gatlin and family will return to Bethesda Md. after a few days leave with his family here.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Jones announce the birth of a daughter, Frankie Ann, August 26 in Lenoir hospital in Kinston. Mrs. Jones is the former Miss Betty Ann Thomas of Beaulaville.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hussey, Jr., of Wallace announce the birth of a son, James Alton, August 13 in Lenoir hospital in Kinston. Mrs. Hussey is the former Mildred Brinson of Beaulaville.

Batchelor-Nethercutt Vows Spoken In Beautiful Candlelight Ceremony

Rocky Mount — In a beautiful double ring ceremony solemnized in the Chapel of the First Baptist Church, Miss Betty Gray Nethercutt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Allen Nethercutt of Rocky Mount, became the bride of Victor Stewart Batchelor, son of Mrs. Paul Batchelor of Nashville and the late Mr. Batchelor Sunday August 17, at six o'clock. The Rev. and John W. Kincheole officiated to perform the ceremony.

The Chapel altar was banked with palms. White gladioli, asters, and tuberoses interspersed with greenery and flanked by stands of white Cathedral tapers burning in branched candelabra formed a crescent shape. Satin ribbons marked the family pews.

Wedding music was rendered by Mrs. Essie Phillips, organist, and Dr. Leonard Earl Harris, who sang 'Wedding Prayer' and 'I Love You Truly.' The Lord's Prayer was used for the benediction. The traditional wedding marches were played.

Entering the church on the arm of her father by whom she was given in marriage, the bride was lovely in her original wedding gown designed by Miriam, of white nylon tulle and Chantilly lace over bridal satin. Crushed nylon tulle netted the top of the strapless lace bodice enriched with a brief lace jacket which featured long tapering sleeves ending in points. The lace formed a scalloped effect over the bouffant tulle ballerina skirt. Her two tier veil of imported bridal illusion was attached to a Mary Queen of Scots bonnet covered with mixing lace and seed pearls. She carried a white Prayer book centered with white gardenias and showered with tuberoses.

Miss Mary Edna Anders of Northport, Alabama was maid of honor and Mrs. William Clifton Corbett of Wilson was matron of honor. They wore identical gowns of petal pink nylon net over taffeta with crushed net bustline above a fitted bodice topped with a lace cap and featuring a bouffant ballerina length skirt. They wore matching ruffled bandeaus and carried nosegays of delicate pastel summer flowers.

Best man was Hubbard Batchelor, brother of the bridegroom. Usher were Bill Currin of Rocky Mount and Elmo Bissett of Spring Hope, both brothers in law of the bridegroom.

The crepe of the bride wore a navy crepe dress with a corsage of white tuberoses for her daughter's wedding. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a navy lace gown with a corsage of white carnations.

Mrs. J. D. Jackson grandmother of the bride wore a black crepe dress with matching accessories and a white geamella corsage. When they left to go on their wedding trip to Western North Carolina, the bride was wearing a brown and beige checked Handmacher suit and natural straw hat with brown accessories.

The bride was graduated from Rocky Mount High School and Atlantic Christian College. She received her Master's degree in English and Spanish from the University of North Carolina. The couple will make their home in Wake Forest where the bridegroom is a student at the Southeastern Theological Seminary. Mrs. Batchelor will be a member of the Youngsville High school faculty.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Guests were received by Mr. and Mrs. Victor Williams, Mrs. Paul Batchelor, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Nethercutt, and the bride party.

Miss Mary Jackson of Fayetteville presided over the bride's book. The reception table was covered with a white linen cloth and held as its center a striking arrangement of all white gladioli and asters intermingled with greenery. White tapers burned in the crystal candelabra. Magnolia leaves and candles were banked around the punch bowl.

Mrs. Bill Currin, sister of the bridegroom, presided to serve punch. Mrs. Roy Gibbs, Mrs. A. T. Caton, Miss Lou Jackson and Mrs. James Thomas served bridal cakes, mints, and nuts. Mrs. J. W. Chadwick presided over the gift room.
