Rones Chapel Dedicates Organ At Home Coming Day Program Recently

Rones Chapel Methodist church, located four miles east of Mount Olive, observed its fourth annual homecoming day Sept. 28 and at the same time dedicated an electric organ which the church purchased several months ago, and which is now completely paid for. In the afternoon following the usual picnic dinner on the grounds of T. L. Newberry, representing the music company from which the church purchased the organ, presented a recital of favorite hymns and other selections, arranged for the organ by Mr. Newberry. The Rev. W. Carleton Wilson, pastor of the church, had charge of the morning worship service. Welcome to those attending the day's activities were spoken by Miss Belle Grady, and Emmett G. Kornegay introduced guests for the day. Mr. Wilson's sermon subject for the morning was "The Golden Age of Now." Following the morning service, trustees of the church, E. G. Kornegay, L. P. Wells, Sr. and J. M. Holland presented the organ for dedication. Mrs. Jarvis Carter is church organist.
