The Faison McGowens Honor Parents Here On Golden Wedding Anniversary

On Saturday evening, October 4, from eight until nine thirty o'clock, Mr. and Mrs. Faison W. McGowen entertained at their home in Kenansville, honoring their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. McGowen on their golden wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Johnson greeted the guests at the front door and Miss Dianne Stokes pinned on each a golden slipper with a tiny yellow tulle bow.

In the receiving line were Mr. and Mrs. J. Oliver Stokes, Mr. and Mrs. Faison McGowen, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. McGowen, honorees, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Boyette, Mr. Frank McGowen, and Rev. and Mrs. Lauren Snarpe.

Mr. and Mrs. John Currie invited the guests into the dining room where they were served brick ice cream into which was molded a golden bell, individual cakes with a gold '50' on each, nuts and gold colored mints. As each guest entered the dining room Miss Florie Currie passed them a napkin on which was engraved in gold these words: 'Julia and Tom, 1902-1952'.

The dining table was covered with a linen cut work imported table cloth over a golden colored cloth. The table was centered with a tiered wedding cake topped with an ornament containing golden ivy leaves and a horse shoe surrounded by the numerals '50'. The wedding cake was flanked by candelabra holding golden colored candles on which were tied miniature golden slippers.

Seated at each end of the dining table and serving cakes and ice cream were Mrs. Oscar H. Best of Warsaw, and Mrs. Vance B. Gavin.

Assisting with the serving in the dining room were Miss Margaret Williams, Mrs. Caroline G. Vin, Miss Barbara Mitchell, Miss Annette Boyette, Mrs. William Walters of Faison, Mrs. Pierre Delaby of Fayetteville, Mrs. Roma Baxley of Laurinburg, Mrs. Louise Mitchell, Mrs. Mary C.
