Carr-Penny Vows Spoken In Candlelight Ceremony

In a candlelight ceremony, November the first at five o'clock on Saturday afternoon, in the Mount Zion Presbyterian Church, Rose Hill, Mrs. Louise Carr pledged her vows with Jennings Bryan Penny in an informal ceremony.

Reverend J. V. Case, pastor of the Rose Hill Baptist Church, officiated to perform the impressive double ring service.

The church was in candlelight, to throw a soft glow over a large center arrangement of white giant chrysanthemums and fern formed a lovely setting for the wedding scene.

Prior to the entrance of the bridal party, Mrs. L. K. Alderman, organist, and Mrs. Elmo Teashey, soloist, rendered a beautiful program of Nuptial Music. The organ selections included, 'Oh Promise Me', 'Devoen', 'Claire De Lune', 'De Bussy', 'Sweetest Story Ever Told', 'Stultis', 'Liebestraum', 'Liszt', 'Etude No. 8', 'Chopin', and Mrs. Teashey sang 'Because' and 'The Lord's Prayer'. The traditional wedding marches were used for the professional and recessional.

The bride given in marriage by her brother, Herbert Royal Cottle, of Rose Hill, wore for her wedding a lovely afternoon gown of Dior pure silk taffeta. The basque bodice was fashioned with a wide album neckline with shirred elbow length sleeves, from this fell the graceful bouffant skirt. Her shoulder length veil of bridal illusion was softly draped from a velvet leaf halo, trimmed with pearls. She also wore short white kid gloves and satin sandals dyed to match her gown. Her only ornament was a single strand of pearls. She carried a white satin prayerbook outlined with nylon net and stephanosis centered with white purple-throated orchids, and showered with satin streamers and stephanosis.

Attending the bride as Matron of honor was her sister, Mrs. George Carr of Rose Hill. She wore an afternoon gown made from iridescent blue taffeta with a full skirt and trimmed with rhinestones. The basque bodice was fashioned with a flattering low cut neckline with cap sleeves and a small stand up collar. Her head-dress was blue net and rhinestones. She wore blue suede and nylon shoes and silver mitt gloves. She carried a pink nosegay of French carnations with pink and blue ribbon streamers.

Maid of honor, Mrs. Grover Booker of Rocky Mount, another sister of the bride, wore an afternoon gown of rose taffeta with a full bouffant skirt. The basque bodice was fashioned with a sweetheart neckline with shirred elbow length sleeves. She wore a priscilla cap of rose taffeta and net, matching mitts and shoes dyed to match her gown, and carried a deep rose nosegay of French carnations with rose and blue ribbon streamers.

Brantley Penny of Wallace was his brother's best man. Ushers were Charles Guthrie Jr., of Kenansville, nephew of the bridegroom and Daniel Cottle of Rose Hill, brother of the bride.

Mrs. Penny chose for her wedding trip to Cuba a chartruse and grey wool ensemble designed with a full skirt and close fitting bodice topped with a matching eton jacket. To complete her costume she wore a navy blue with other accessories of black. The white orchids lifted from her prayerbook added the perfect touch.

The bride and groom will be at home in Rose Hill. The bride, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry M. Cottle of Rose Hill, is a graduate of Rose Hill High School and Chicago School of Nursing.

The groom, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Early R. Penny of Kenansville is a graduate of Warsaw High School and attended Wake Forest College. He is associated with his brother in the building supply Co. of Wallace.

meat balls, ground beef patties and hamburger plus various kinds all are family favorites.

No matter what the season, you can always count on ground beef—either the ready ground kind, which is a high quality product when purchased from a reliable meat dealer, or the beef which you have ground to order.

When you're having beef ground, chuck is a good choice. It's more economical than round steak and contains enough fat to be juicy and tender. Ground beef steak is somewhat more expensive per lb., but if you prefer this cut for grinding, it will have a little suet sauce. 2. By Using Their Creative Streak Women And Girls Turn Out Attractive Clothes

Do you like to sew and create? Most women and college extension specialist in clothing.

And if you do enjoy being original and using your creative streak, you can make many of your own clothing accessories. Accessories that show good taste are often way out of line as far as price is concerned, and by making your own you can have a lot of fun and at the same time save yourself a great deal of expense.

Patterns for attractive neckwear, bags, hats and gloves are found in almost all popular pattern books at your local department stores.

Accessories are very expressive of certain moods and personalities, explains Miss Lee. They can be dressy, tailored, feminine, exotic and very dramatic according to the wish of the wearer. Accessories can completely change the character of the suit or dress—dressing it up or 'dressing it down' so to speak. Of course, here again, the occasion, as well as the costume and personality, will enter into the decision.

The use of artificial flowers as an accessory comes and goes with the seasons. They can strike a small colorful note as can no other small accessory. For winter, Miss Lee suggests velvet, satin and heavier flowers in deep rich colors—for spring and summer in pastel, lighter weight fabrics.

At the present time costume jewelry is enjoying a bright spot in women's wardrobes the country over. Everyone is wearing it and enjoying it, too. But Miss Lee cautions those who love costume jewelry not to wear too much of it at a time. Overdoing it makes you look much more like a gypsy than a smartly dressed lady. Use a definite need to achieve the best results.

Miscellaneous violations such as larceny of automobile, hit and run, manslaughter, improper use of driver's license, unsatisfied judgment, incompetency, and habitual violator brought the total number of October convictions to 1,986, the majority of them North Carolinians.

All we have been taught about economy and thrift has been thrown into the discard.
