Mrs. Bertha Smith Dies At Her Home

Mrs. Bertha Turner Smith, 65, of Smith Township, died at her home about 7:30 a. m. on Wednesday after a lengthy illness. She was the widow of Deleon Smith. Funeral services were held at the home at 3 p. m. this afternoon by her pastor, the Rev. L. C. Prater of Outlaw's Bridge Universalist Church, assisted by the Rev. N. P. Farrior, Presbyterian minister of Pink Hill. Burial followed in the Smith family cemetery. She is survived by one son, Deleon Smith; five daughters, Mesdames Clayton Stroud, Clarence Sheppard, John Hill Sanderson, Herman Page and Miss Sadie Doris Smith, all of the home; two foster-sons, Carmer and Mack Turner of the home; one foster-daughter, Mrs. Alvin Smith of the home; one sister, Mrs. Ira Whitman of Warsaw.

Card Of Thanks

I wish to thank my many friends for their many cards, flowers and other deeds of kindness shown during my recent illness. Sheriff Ralph Miller
