Red Cross Rushes To Aid Of Disaster Ridden Countries In Europe; Donations

Cables expressing sympathy have been sent to Red Cross Societies in Belgium, Great Britain, Ireland, and the Netherlands. In addition a cable was sent to the League of Red Cross Societies yesterday offering $100,000. Red Cross contribution of 60,000 (sixty thousand) gift boxes, fifty (50) school chests and also stating that the Junior Red Cross is prepared to consider other requests for assistance in meeting emergency or rehabilitation needs for children involved in the Belgian, British, and Netherlands disasters.

The American Red Cross today advised the League of Red Cross Societies to expend up to ten thousand ($10,000) through the Netherlands Red Cross for blankets and clothing needed by Dutch flood victims and authorizing distribution of clothing warehoused by League Geneva.

Department of State reports that the Red Cross Societies in Europe are proving extremely helpful in assisting the disaster victims in the Netherlands. Robert C. Lewis, Director of American Red Cross operations in Germany, reports that a United States Military Mission headed by Lt. Gen. Manton S. Eddy has established headquarters at the Hague, Netherlands and is the home providing all possible assistance.

Mrs. Kornegay Is Hostess To Scotts Store Club

Mrs. Ed Kornegay was hostess to the Scott's Store Home Demonstration Club in her home on Wednesday, Feb. 4. The meeting was called to order promptly on time by the president, Mrs. Zolie Kornegay and the group sang together "America" accompanied at the piano by the music leader, Mrs. Cecil Kornegay.

The project leaders for the month gave their reports. In the absence of the citizenship leader, Mrs. J. W. Waters, the oldest member in the group gave the report in a very noteworthy and interesting manner. The home agent, Mrs. Johnson gave demonstration on "Cold Facts" which was plainly drawn out by a chart she had planned. She stressed the vital importance of keeping the body in shape to resist colds and how to do it.

The meeting closed on the usual time and the hostess assisted by Mrs. Donnel Kornegay and Mrs. Jasper Herring served delicious refreshments to the nineteen members present.
