

Chinquapin Chats

BY: VIDA MILLOY

Who of us are wise enough to recognize the things we know and the things we do not know? Unless you use it twice—a poor sibilant—better than none! Pleasure, you can take, or give, happiness, should be shared.

Work is under way at the Presbyterian church for the new pastor, who is expected in the near future. A good sermon was heard Sunday morning by the Rev. Dudley who is a visiting pastor left a good thought with his audience.

Mr. Perry Albertson who has been critically ill in a Kinston hospital with a severe heart attack, is back at home having to take life easy.

Hallie E. Albertson who has served two years and two months at Turner A. F. Base at Albany, Ga. was home with his parents, Mr. & Mrs. Jim Albertson recently in route to Camp Stoenman California for shipment to Far Eastern Air Force. Mrs. Albertson, the former Jane Albritton of Snow Hill, will be at home at Mr. & Mrs. Albertson.

Jane Sanderson of E.C.C. & Aloise Williams of A.C. Wilson was home over the week-end.

Mr. L. H. Carter returned home recently after a trip at Mars Hill and Charlotte with his family and friends.

Mr. Gardner Craft and two daughters were stopping over at Chinquapin last week on route to Wallace on business.

Mr. Leslie Southerland recently suffered a broken leg while doing farm work. Mr. Southerland expects to have a cast on the injured leg for several weeks. This is punishment—too much for a farmer this time a year.

Mrs. C. Royal who has recently been a patient in the hospital has returned home and is out and about again.

Aperson's own lounge—sometimes, gives them away on just how much they understand what they are talking about! An EXPERT is one who can take something they already know, and make it sound confusing!

Mr. & Mrs. Alton Lanier and Mrs. & Mrs. Garland Lanier motored to Morehead City, & Atlantic on a recent Sunday afternoon, having a sea-food dinner at Morehead.

Mrs. Margaret Brinkley returned from a Wilmington hospital last week after a major operation and is getting on nicely. Why they can the drug—"wonder" drug—"wonder" why they'll do to you! But, with the drigs of today, Mrs. Brinkley is looking as if nothing had happened to her, and is feeling fine. Here's hoping she will soon be her self again.

The Rev. & Mrs. Joseph Sumner of Jacksonville were recent visitors of Mr. & Mrs. Garland Lanier. Mrs. Sumner is the former Miss Brinson of Beaulville.

Mr. & Mrs. J. D. Sloan & baby Gall, Mr. & Mrs. Ross Pierce were recent visitors in Norfolk, Va. with Mr. & Mrs. Alvin Pierce and family of Norfolk, over the week-end.

Mrs. Jim Albertson and Mrs. Martha Scholar recently gave a miscellaneous shower for Mr. & Mrs. Charles Albertson at the home of Mrs. Scholar, where around two or three hundred persons attended. Several hundred dollars of presents were presented, lots of fun, refreshments of chicken salad, cup-cakes, Easter candy and Co-co-la were served.

Mr. & Mrs. Ellis Williams spent the week-end in Washington, D. C. last wkks with a daughter who has a new son. The former Miss Catherine Williams.

The Ladies of the Presbyterian church recently quilted a quilt for the Barum Spring Orphanage at Barnum Springs. This the fifth of such to be donated by the Ladies.

Mrs. Emily Dail and Mrs. T. G. Huffman recently made a business trip to Jacksonville, N. C.

Mrs. Minnie Stevens of Catherine's Lake is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Billie Brinkley.

Mrs. Vida was a recent visitor of Mr. & Mrs. Ed. Craft of Pink Hill.

Mrs. Roy Smith recently returned from Wilmington where she visited with Mr. & Mrs. G. Spooner, and other friends there.

Beautiful Airlie Gardens ly, moss hung oaks, Azalea and other shrubs and flowering plants bloom literally by the millions. Old Airlie is virtually a lover's paradise that takes one deep into the romantic story books of the old, enchanting South.

Doubtless our great grandchildren will prize heirlooms all the more if they must finish paying for them.

High cost of living increases—but every holiday weekend an increasing number of citizens escape it.

The W. M. U. held its regular meeting last week-end at the Baptist church with around forty members attending. Reports on the recent Convention in Wilmington was one of the major topics, and announcing the preparations for the coming one day convention here the ninth-of-April another. A big dinner of B-Arbe-Cue will lead other good things to eat—is expecting to bring a big crowd to attend the big rally. Several Missionaries are expected to be here and the public is invited—to bring dinner! The powder room is being completed at the church—and any excuse is disappointing, for one not to attend! Ninth of April!

Mr. & Mrs. Marvi Beale of Wilmington was a week-end visitor in Chinquapin last week-end.

Mr. Phillip Sanderson was a early visitor of his mother, Mrs. Eula Sanderson last Sunday morning.

What we see in others—may depend lot of times on what we are looking for!

My pet peeve—of the week, is "Making a carbon copy... and on finishing the page find that I have the carbon turned wrong side up."

DEATHS
Cecil Westbrook
Cecil Westbrook, 34, died at his home near B. F. Grady school Sunday morning at 7:30 after several months illness.

Funeral services were held at 3:30 Monday from the Woodland Methodist church in the home community of which he was a member. The officiating minister was his pastor, the Rev. D. C. Boone of Pink Hill. Mr. Westbrook, a Mason, was a member of the Kenansville Lodge. Masons conducted the rites at the grave. Burial was in the Westbrook family cemetery near the home.

In addition to his wife, the former Janet Herring, he is survived by two children, Everett Cecil, Jr. and Janet Faye of the home.
