Rural Mail Box Improvement Week

Music, Art Festival

ty Music and Art Festival gets un-der way in Kenan Memorial Auditorium here tonight with a stage program of music for the Duplin County High School Band, elementary and high school choruses, folk auditorium will be open to the pub lic featuring exhibits of art and handicraft work done by school

Stephenson Music Company in Ragan and organ music will accombands.

Coming Here Next Monday Night

Wally Fowler and the Oak Ridge Quartet together with the Chuck Wagon Gang will make another appearance in Kenan. A morial Auditurium here Monday h. Int. April 20, beginning at 8 p. m., and lasting until midnight. The program this time will be all Kenansville. Wally says he will not divide his time between here and another town. Administion will be $1.00 in advance, $1.25 at the door and 50 cents for children from 6 to 12. Under 6 years old free. Tickets are now on sale at the following places: Warsaw Drug Co., Wallace Drug Co., Kenansville Drug Co., Western Auto Associates, Wallace: Service Moter Co., Kenansville and Warsaw Lions Club. The program is sponsored by the two Lions Clubs.

Wally and the Chuck Wagon gang needs no introduction to Duplin audiences. Their fame at gospel singing is well known in these parts.

Grady Girl Scouts Celebrate

First Birthday With Banquet

The members of B. F. Grady Girl Secot Troop One celebrated their first birthday by entertaining their mothers at a banquet in the school cafeteria Saturday night, April 11.

The menu consisted of pineapple juice, chicken salad, glazed apples, lima beans, potato chips, deviled eggs, cloverleaf rolls, iced tea, cake and ice cream. Serving as weit-resses were Peggy Jean Grady and Betty Spence Smith.

The cafeteria was attractively decorated using green and yellow, the Girl Scout colors. The centerplece at the guest table was a big birthday cake, baxed by the girls, and baering the words "Happy Birthday Troop One."

The program was as follows:

The program was as follows:

Nell Garner, Ne

County Republicans In Meeting Here

Duplin County Republicans met in the Duplin County court house on April 10, with H. B. Kornegay of Calypso presiding.

Officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows:

H. B. Kornegay, chairman; Mrs. James Cottle, Faison, vice-chairman; C. C. Ivey, Mount Olive, treasurer; Mrs. S. V. Wilkins, Rose Hill, secretary.

secretary.

Chairman Kornegay is well known in party circles, having served as county chairman for 15 years.

With most voting precincts represented, considerable program was made in forming the County Executive Committee.

Owen Matthis, of Clinton, was introduced and spoke in behalf of Young Republican Clubs. Following enthusiastic discussion, plans were made to organize a Young Republican Club in the county. All Republicans under $0 are eligible for membership, are arged to contact Mr. Kornegay or any member of the Executive Committee for further information.

Talks were made by Chairman Kornegay, C. C. Ivey and others, urging their hearers to greater effort in party affairs.

13 Are Inducted Army, April 6 May Call For 17

The local Draft Board lists the following men inducted into the armed services from here on April

Allen Adolph Bell, Kenansville, C; Derl Grey Walker, route 2, Mt. Olive, W; Gibson Bruce Carter, route 1, Mt. Olive, W; Walter Frank-lin Carter, route 1, Warsaw, W; Del-mas Wilburn Dall, route 1, Mt. Olive, W; Alfred Arthur Houston, Jr., route 2. Beulayille, W; Richard Douglas Chasten, route 3, Rose Hill, C; Franklin Thigpen, route 1, Mt. Olive, W; Linwood William Herring, onve, w. Linwood william Herring, route 1, Warsaw, N; Gerald Dixon Morton, Chinquapin, W; Robert Lowell Rhodes, route 1, Beulaville, W; Juno Lasale Dixon, route 1, Ken-ansville, C; William Melvin Cas-teen, route 2, Rose Hill, W.

Next pre-induction examination is April 30, 1953, for 37 men. May induction call is for 17 men on May 4, 1953.

May pre-induction examination is May pre-induction examination is Murphy and Helen Elizabeth Knight.

C

28

45c

The members of B. F. Grady Girl Scout Troop One celebrated their first birthday by entertaining their mothers at a banquet in the school cafeteria Saturday night, April 11.

The menu consisted of pineapple juice, chicken saiad, glazed apples, lima beans, potato chips, deviled eggs, cloverleaf rolls, iced tea, cake and ice cream. Serving as waitnesses were Peggy Jean Grady and Betty Spence Smith.

The cafeteria was attractively decorated using green and yellow, the Girl Scout colors. The centerpiece at the guest table was a big birthday cake, based by the girls, and baering the words "Happy Birthday Troop One."

The program was as follows:

Investign Marilyn Stroud; teact.

Ileader; with lovely corsages, Connie Jo Wells presented Mrs. John Sheppard, former leader; a gift from the troop to her baby daughter.

The following girls were invested as new members: Zylphia Smith, Scarlet Hill, and Patricia Herring.

Receiving second class badges were Shelby Smith, Nancy Lillian Grady, Carolyn Waller and Glenda Scott.

Proficiency Badges were awarded to Sue Smith, Marilyn Stroud, Shelby Smith, Glenda Scott, Carolyn Waller, Connie Joe Wells, Edwina Smith and Clystia Holt.

Membership pens were awarded to Connie Jo Wells, Sue Smith, Nell Garner, Nancy Lillian Grady, Carolyn Waller, Connie Joe Wells, Sue Smith, Nell Garner, Nancy Lillian Grady, Carolyn Waller, Connie Joe Wells, Edwina Smith and Clystia Holt.

Birthday Troop One."

The program was as follows:
Invocation, Marilym Stroud; toastmistress, Shelby Smith; toast to mothers, Nancy Lillian Grady; response, Mrs. Varner Garner; investiture of new members and awards by leader, M a r y Anna Grady; pledge to flag, Girl Scout Promise and Girl Scout Hymn, Troop. A recreation period of games and dancing was enjoyed by the girls and mothers.

Nell Garner, Nancy Lillian Grady, Eleanor Jane Grady, Clystia Holt, Patricia Miller, Edwina Smith, Shel-by Smith, Glenda Scott, Judy Wallace and Mary Franklin Wallace. Guests attending were: Mrs. Varby leader, M a r y Anna Grady; pledge to flag, Girl Scout Promise and Girl Scout Hymn, Troop. A recreation period of games and dancing was enjoyed by the girls and mothers.

Connie Jo Wells and Sue Smith presented Mary Anna Grady, leader; and Thelma Dilday, assistant Guests attending were: Mrs. Various Grady, increase Garner, Mrs. Needham Grady, Mrs. Emmett Herring, Mrs. Buck Hill, Mrs. Robert Holt, Mrs. Arthur Smith, Mrs. John C. Smith, Mrs. Clayton Stroud, Mrs. Ash Scott, Mrs. William Waller, Mrs. H. M. Wells and Mrs. John Sheppard.

Duplin Home Demonstration Women Bring Home Gavel

Issue In April

Eunice Davis; Myron Gene Higdon and Gereldine Kornegay; Preston

R. Lanier and Sudie I. Lanier: Jack

Thompson Jr. and Lettuce Faye

Beddard; Alton Junior Stroud and

License were issued to one col-

Margaret Jean Jones.

Duplin H o m e Demonstration women brought home the gavel from the District meeting held in Clinton last Wednesday, April 5, in the Baptist Church there.

The morning session was devoted to business and reports. Mrs. C. L. Holland, a member of the Friendly Clut, was chairman of the Resolutions Committee.

Mrs. J. B. Torrans, Council Chairman, presented the Duplin report, using 3 flannel board. To the star of Home Demonstration Club work in Duplin last year she thitched five wagons: Organization of the Chairman proper county wide religious service held during National Home Demonstration Week, county Dress Revue for Spring Federation; developed them of International Goodwill on Achievement Day; and a Christmas open house.

At the close of the meeting, Mrs. Mary L. McAllister, Southeastern District Agent, installed the new officers. Mrs. David Williams of the Chairman of the 27th District.

Ninety-seven women from Dupin in attended this meeting.—By Pauline S. Johnson, Home Demonstration Agent.

Local Breeders Marriage Licenses Superior Sire During the two weeks of April, marriage license were issed to the following white couples. Leon Arton Keutzer and Anne Rae Turner, Walter Pollock West and Pearl Raynor; Alvin Baker and Pauline Baker; Leo M. Weston and Eleanor Futral; William Arthur Jones and Mary Frances Jones; Robert Rhodes Jr. and Martha Grey Murray; Luther F. Jehkins and Eunice Davis; Myron Gene Higdon 480287, by American Breeders Serv- ned. ice for use in artificial insemination service rendered local dairymen by their organization.

"Donna" to use his short name, a big, deep bodied, straight, solid dark fawn bull, classified "Very Good." He was listed in the Feb ruary 25th Jersey Bulletin as a Su-perior Sire with 10 tested daugh-ters averaging 9,966 pounds of milk, 5.1 per cent test, and 505 pounds of butterfat and 11 classified daugh-ters averaged 85.68 per cent.

ters averaged 85.68 per cent.

"Donna" was purchased from Edward L. Young, of Florence, S. C. He was bred by J. L. Hutchinson, Jr., Happy Valley Farm, Rossville, Ga. He was born September 11, 1940, and is now almost six years old. Although 11 daughters have completed lactation only nine dams have records, which gives "Donna" a nine daughter-dam comparison American Index of 10,701 pounds of milk, 4.70 per cent test and 503 pounds of butterfat on a 305 day, 2X, mature equivalent basis.

Coastal Cooperative Breeders Association, Inc., will furnish service from "Donna" to dairymen in the county at no advance in fee.

Wilmington Plans Stock Show, Apr. 30 and Sele at Wilmington on April 30 and May 1, 1963. Any boy or girl who would like to enter a best calf, or pigs in the Wilmington show should contact their agriculture teacher, or county agent's office by April 29.

Rummage Sale

be spread on the court minutes. Clerk of Court R. V. Wells has filed Briefs

School Group Meets Wednesday The Duplin County School Im-Coastal Cooperative Breeders Association, Inc., announced today that their Jersey Bull Committee has unanimously approved the purchase of Donna Dandy Sultan, R. J. interesting program is being planning program.

His address, see back page, tells the story of Mr. Outlaw. County Attorney Vance B. Gavin, in appropriate words, accepted the por-

Judge Harriss ordered that the por-

Work Starts Beulaville Water System Work was commenced Wednesday in Beulaville on installation of a $125,000 water system. The Wilmington Well and Pump Company

District 14 Nurses To Meet An urgent meeting will be held for the nurses of District 14, North Carolina State Nurses Association, Frost was reported in the county Tuesday morning but not sufficient to do any damage.

County Court will convene Morday morning for trial by jury.

Presbytery Meets Hallsville
The spring session of the Wilmington Presbytery will meet with the Hallsville church next Tuesday. At this time the Presbytery is expected to take action officially declaring Grove Presbyterian Church in Kenansville the point of beginning of Presbyterianism in North Carolina.

2 Duplin Doctors At Bowman Gray

Hung In Court House Here

Portrait Albert T. Outlaw

Albert Timothy Outlaw, retired Register of Deeds in Duplin County, was signally honored here last Friday morning when a huge portrait of him was presented to the country during the morning session of Superior Court. The picture, done in Sepia, was made in New York City and paid for by friends and members of Mr. Outlaw's family in Duplin.

Judge W. C. Harriss of Raleigh, presiding over court, recognized Judge Henry A. Grady, of New Bern, emergency Superior Court Judge and former resident judge of this judicial district. Judge Grady was reared in Duplin but lived in Sampson during his tenure as resident judge. Judge Grady delivered about a 20-minute address on the life and work of Albert T. Outlaw. His address, see back page, tells the deep seem of the court house between the court house there. Judge Grady, the oldest Superior Court Judge in North Carolina in point of service and age. Judge Harriss is the second oldest Judge in point of service. The above picture of Mr. Outlaw is not the copy that is hung in the court house between the court house there. Judge Grady, the oldest Superior Court Judge in North Carolina in point of service. The above picture of Mr. Outlaw is not the copy that is hung in the court house between the court house there. Judge Grady, the oldest Superior Court Judge in North Carolina in point of service and age. Judge Harriss is the second oldest Judge in point of service and age. Judge Harriss is the second oldest Judge in point of service and age. Judge Harriss is the second oldest Judge in point of service and age. The above picture of Mr. Outlaw is not the copy that is hung in the court house between the court house there.

pose of him that will be recognized by everyone who has ever seen him in his office at work here. Mr. trait on behalf of the county and Outlaw was unable to attend the presentation because of ill health. The Kenansville high school turned trait be hung in an appropriate place on the walls of the court room and Judge Grady's address Judge Grady's address in full on back page.

Superior Court Disposes 21 Cases Here Last Week

Superior court convened Tuesday morning April 7 with Judge W. C. Harris presiding. The 21 cases disosed of were as follows: Elisha King for posession and transporting non tax paid whiskey for purpose of sale and aiding and abeting in same. Plead guilty and sentenced to roads for 12 months. sentence suspended and defendant placed on probation for three years upon payment of cost.

Odell Gresham plead guilty in operating automobile in careless and reckless manner and operating ve-hicle with expired license. Sentenced 6 months on roads, sentence suspended for two years on good behavior and defendant not to operate a car in the state for one pay $125.00 and cost.

Tommie Powell charged with pos ession of non tax paid whiskey for purpose of sale, operating a dis-orderly home and aiding and abet-ting in same, Sentenced to 18 months on roads. Defendant gave notice of appeal to superior court.

Leslie J, and Lillie Farrior charged with posession of non tax paid whiskey for purpose of sale and for aiding and abetting in same.

Case against Lillie Mae Farrior nol prossed. Leslie plead gulity and was sentenced to roads for 12 months. Sentence was suspended and defendant placed on probation for 3 wears to pay fine of $100.00 and is cooperating in the sentence was suspended and defendant placed on probation for 3 wears to pay fine of $100.00 and Sentence was suspended and defendant placed on probation for 3 years to pay fine of $100.00 and cost.

Robert Garner charged with posession of materials for the purpose of manufacturing non tax paid whistory for purpose of sale. Was found not guilty.

Wilbert Highsmith plead guilty for assault with a deadly weapon. Was sentenced to roads for 18 months. Sentence suspended and defendant placed on probation for 3 years on payment of cost and the sum of $200.00 to Wilbert Farrior and $90.00 to Pender hospital.

David Swinson plead no lo contended to charge of hit and run Continued On Back Page Section 1

Winston-Salem on April 14, 15, and Wilmington District are expected of the Mission of the Methodist Church. The Mission involves all Methodist Church and the Methodist Church. The Mission involves all Methodist Church also year, and in the previous year led the entire Greenville District Church of faith in the Methodist Church. The Rose Hill Services will be the guest preacher at Rose Hill Services will be the guest preacher at Rose Hill Services will be conducted by Rev. Murray are invited to attend. A Chorus of a hundred voices under the direction of Miss Shirley Smith of Salemburg. N. C. will participate. Throughout the entire Christian Emphasis week of April 19 through 26 the mission, April 18, at 7:30. About 1,000 Youth from the will be emphasised. This theme has profound signifigance because it is and $90.00 to Pender hospital.

David Swinson plead no lo contendre to charge of hit and run Continued On Back Page Section 1

Winston-Salem on April 14, 15, and 16, is sponsored by the North Carolina State Board of Health in cooperation with members of the Bowman Gray faculty. It is the first of its kind in this area of the state.

Directing the conference are Dr. Frank R. Lock, professor and director of the medical school's department of obstetrics and gynecology, and Dr. Robert B. Lawson, professor and hasd of the school's department of pediatrics.

In connection with the Mission, there will be a great Youth Rally at Roseboro in the High School auditorium, Saturday, April 18, at Roseboro in the High School audi

The Post Office Department has designated the week ending April 18, 1953, as Rural Mail Box Improvement Week. Rural mail boxes which are not door or other type are not required to the required to the large of the lar properly erected or in good serv-iceable condition retard the delivery of mail and expose it to dam- owners for several years and are It is the desire of the Department to encourage patrons of the

Opens Here Tonight

sible to the carrier and present a neat appearance. scribed on the side of the boxes when serving them.

afternoon, April 2nd, by a visit from music clubs on the invitation of and inspirational talk to the club members concerning the many and varied problems facing students of investigate and as he had rounded

S. Best will file, also it is reported 5.

Methodist Begin

- ROSE HILL CHURCH

and Marilyn Stroud, play several future date.

Speaks To B. F. Grady Music Club

The music clubs of B. F. Grady on tone, technique, interpretation music. He listened to two of the cerely hope it may be possible for most advanced pupils, Don Wells him to pay us another visit at some

They Didnt' Know Why They Did It

So They Went And Stole Two Cars

Two Warsaw youths are resting received a telephone call from the in jail here talking over the sights Charlotte Police Department tell-they saw and the figs they had ing him they had two Warsaw when they only "borrowed" two youths in jail there, charged with automobiles for some pleasure rid-possessing a stolen automobile and do so before the sun sets Saturday file before the deadline.

Warsaw Election Gaining Momentum;

17, both of the Warsaw area.

FAISON CHURCH

ces that the United Evangelistic

Mission services will be conducted

April 19 through 26 by the Rev.

Bryan Grenshaw of Barnwell, S. C.

The Rev. Grenshaw attended Cand-ler School of Theology where he obtained a B. D. degree and Emory University where he obtained a M. S. Th. degree. He was on the condition. Any boxes not of the present standard type which are of rural delivery service to provide such design that they cannot be suitable mail receptacles and to properly served by the carrier from erect them so they will be readily his vehicle or are in such condition as not to protect the mail, should be replaced with boxes of It is especially desirable that the approved types. Boxes, re-boxes be maintained in a condition that will assure proper probe of such design and such conditions. tection to mail placed therein, that tion that there will be no likeli-the names of box owners be in-hood of the carrier's being injured day afternoon and evening organ concerts will be given with a portion of the Sunday program given over to gospel singing. The public is invited. There will be no ad and two children, Joan and George Bryan, have recently moved to Pink Hill from their farm on Alschool were honored on Thursday attitude at piano and rhythm. Don bertson, Route 1, and Mr. Westwas rated as excellent on all points. brook has taken over the manage Mr. Albert Alphin, President and Marilyn also received a high rating. ment of the Esso Service Station Director of Boston Conservatory of It was a real pleasure to have Music. Mr. Alphin who is spending Mr. Alphin with us. He is a Duplin located on the highway, in town, which was formerly operated by a short while with relatives and native and well remembered by Robert Summerlin. He will have friends in this vicinity visited the many in our community. He left a complete line of automobile achis father's farm when a young our music teacher, Mrs. Byrd. While boy and went to Boston to study Riverside tires and will specialize with us he gave a very interesting in his chosen career of music. He is another outstanding example of changing. He will also handle what can be accomplished by hard drinks, cigaretts, candy and work and perseverance. We sincream.

They Just Wanted To Ride Some;

Albertson Couple Head Of Boston Conservatory Of Music Move Pink Hill

ice, they will receive it, with a smile, at Westbrook's. Look for his

Gets Photographs Put On Exhibit

Daniel W. Lanier, Wallace's new professional photographer and a naive of Beulaville, attended the N. C. Photographers Association Convention in High Point recently. At the convention pictures that had been judged by some of the nation's leading photographers were ing. They didn't mean to "steal" driving without license. Coombs them, say said. They told Warsaw and Deputy Sheriff Boone went to Among those three made by Mr. Lanier.

Police Chief Coombs they "didn't Charlotte and returned David Out-know why they did it ,they just law, age 18 and A. P. Tyndall, age Revivalist

REV. DAVID CRAWFORD

The Reverend David Crawford, a inisterial student of the William mayor but others are expected to is a Negro. Others are expected to Carter Bible College of Goldsboro will begin a series of revival serv-ices in the Northeast Free Will to file. John Jenkins, Mayor of the town several years ago, has filed. It is expected that encumbent G. Registration books for new voters will several years ago, has filed and 25. May 2 will be challenge day. Election day is Tuesday, May six miles of Pevival Services in the Northeast Free Will Baptist Church Sunday night, April and 25. May 2 will be challenge day. Election day is Tuesday, May night, the last date for candidates. Registration books for new voters day. Election day is Tuesday, May six miles from Wallace-Chinquaph road, it was announced by the Reverend Arby Carter, pastor of the The Rev. Richard Hoagland of the church. Faison Methodist Church announ-

This will be the first revival the 21 year-old evangelist has conducted in the historic Northeast Church. The young evangelist was licensnomination in December, 1950, and was ordained in May of 1951. has attended Holmes Bible College one year and will finish his second year of ministerial work in June of this year in the Carter College.

Besides attending Carter College he is assistant pastor of the Edgewood Evangelical Baptist Church of Goldsboro, having become assist-The Rev. Grenshaw will also conduct the mammouth Youth Rally at Roseboro High School April 18 at The revival campaign is e Roseboro High School April 18 at 7:30 p. m. This rally will launch the District wide campaign of the UEM and all youth from 12 to 23 are invited to attend. A Chorus of CHRIST.

PINK HILL CHURCH

Special services in connection with the Methodist Evangelical

Ummm . . . AIN'T THEY GOOD, Just picked out of a Dupli County strawberry patch. This is a typical scene among Duplin straw berry patches at this season of the year. Wallace's strawberry market opened this week and sales have been running about 200 packages per day. Officials say sales will get into high goar next week. The market has been moved from the West side of town to the rear of Bryant lanchard warehouse on highway 117,