Wandering Along The Years In Kenansville

With KILBEY GUTHRIE

Installment 2
Who could be more pleasant or a willing person to greet on the street than Mr. Vivian Wells, who has served his county, "Many a Year", won't even ask, how many? Mr. Vivian - Isn't there a verse some where that says and I quote, "enter thy courts with thanksgiving into thy gates with praise" - could this be applied to Mr. Vivian in any way? We know that all through his years of service as clerk of court he has been faced with many a decision, covering delinquents of all types and kinds. Many a fatherly word has he handed along with his late wife, Laura Carroll Wells, came into this town when quite young. It was through Mrs. Wells' hard work and gentle persistence that we have the Kenansville County Library. She has been greatly missed in this town. Mr. Wells has always been a most interesting conversationalist. He can really tell you some tall tales of old Duplin. Our thanks to you Mr. Vivian for your keen interest in this good old town of yours.

Speaking of the tall tales of Duplin reminds us of some of the late citizens of our town, one, the late Sheriff Wallace and the stories told on him about one of the floggings that took place at the court house. He and his wife Mary, have a son known to all the people as Joe. We would think Mr. Jim and his wife Cora McGowan Stokes, they too, saw the town progress and grow. To "Miss Cora" many of the town's young owe their thanks for words of wisdom and encouragement. They have a son and daughter, who make their homes here, Florence Stokes Currie and J. O. better known as Oliver.

Mr. Dobb Williamson better known as "Uncle Dobb" will be long remembered for his ability to entertain the young in his latter years. He was the father of one of our most capable county sheriffs, David Williamson, he also has another son here known to us as "Mr. Ben".

Though bachelors till God called them, "Slim and Rudolph Dell" will long be remembered for ever willingness to help in any project and certainly "Slim" for his dry wit that always lifted the spirits of the down-cast.

Thinking of those who have departed reminds me of the bone yard. How many of us remember Bobbie Holt returned home Saturday following three weeks spent at Camp Tuscarora.

Mrs. Warren Maxwell has returned from a visit of several weeks with friends and relatives in Alabama.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Simpson and children spent the week-end with relatives at Erwin, Freedy, Jr. remained for a longer visit with his grandmother.

Mr. and Mrs. Rommie O'Daniel of Ft. Worth, Texas are visiting friends and relatives in the Albertson vicinity.

In the days of Ben Williamson, Mr. Jerritt and the Kenansville Jitney, which was the only means of transportation - course do believe I heard that such eligible ones as Fred Barrs, Irvin Burch, Oliver Stokes, Lloyd Farrell, David Williamson and others had cars. The cars must have helped cause all the above mentioned managed to keep the gals here. 'Tis to Miss Mary the men give their thanks. Mr. Less made a capable post master until his retirement. He now "is taking it easy and enjoying his friends of long standing. Thanks Lestie for everything."

Thinking of Miss Davis and Mary as young girls, we are reminded of their girlhood friends who lives with us part time, Mrs. Bessie Elson Hines. Miss Bessie's family were here and New York a good bit of the time. How many remember the Hinson Hat Shop where she and her sister, the late Miss Lulu, were girls with the Hinson girls' charm and talents and talents of beautiful things and good time? The bachelors in their younger days were always in a "tizzy". Miss Bessie's coming back to Kenansville for her winters, is always looked forward to by those who know and love her. Never leave us Bessie.

Along this time there came to our town a young couple with a young family. They were progressive and helpful in all they did. Mr. and Mrs. Thad Jones were strong supporters of what was good and right.

When Mr. Jones passed on, Mrs. Jones carried forth like a soldier with the banners. Her large and growing family began to seek the greener pastures and greater opportunities, leaving her one by one. Did she complain? Never! She was only too glad to see them ambitious and aggressive. When her last daughter, Margaret, married and went away with her better half, Mrs. Jones braced up, smiled and said "I can carry on! That is the spirit that has prevailed all through the years in what ever Mrs. Jones has found to do. Truly a great Lady lives in our midst. One who can entertain you with the tales of "I remember where."

Wandering along the way we meet up with Quinchools, the Brinson who have been ever faithful and active in both church and civic affairs of their town. It is "Miss Quinnie" the Church owes its thanks for keeping such organizations as Sunbeams, R. A.'s and such. Quinchools, the Brinson faithfully through the years in the Kenansville Womans Club. Both Mr. and Mrs. Brinson were, in years past, most interested and active in school activities. Anything for the advancement especially in the days helping him carry through all projects, packages for Santa Clause, birthdays, weddings, food for the babies and such. Just how many years have you been such a friend to man Mr. Perry? Not only has he done all of this but he and Mrs. Deason have been most active in all civic organizations in Kenansville, both in the Church, womans club, Kenansville Library, Scouts, (both girls and boys). All you had to do was just call on Perry and Brilla even if it was to lead a square dance on his home place back in the good old days of the Hallsville beach picnics and reunion days. Ask Perry about some of those. Ask Brilla about some of the times when she was substitute mail carrier. Those happening would be well worth hearing.

Talking about dances we would not leave out Mr. Less and his good old leg shaking through the years. He was ever ready (and still is) to go to the home of the olden days and the shake downs of these modern days. Course don't believe his wife Mary has done much of such lately but I imagine when "Lestie" was young and eying the girls she was not letting them beat her time. Mr. and Mrs. William have always been "Public Spirited." They opened the "home" to the pretty gals from other towns who came to teach the "three R's", back

Why Do People Buy Savings Bonds?

There are lots of reasons: safety, convenience, personal security, the assurance of financial independence - the age-old desire to give their children a start in life.

But, getting beneath the motives, one big reason people save is because somebody ASKS them to. Often, that somebody is YOU. Your regular use of Savings Bonds advertising has a lot to do with the huge reserves of Bond savings which your community holds - its proportionate share of the giant $38.8 billion total of current E Bond holdings.

We are grateful for your support. I know the mechanics and other businessmen of your area are grateful, too - because you have helped to insure continued good business for your community.

In a few days you will receive proof of the July ads, together with a return order card for your use in requesting free mats.

Sincerely yours,
