Feeling of a Negro
Mr. Edmond P. Blanchard, of Rose Hill, N. C. was not only a good citizen but a friend. He was so humane and approachable. And, too, he had much sympathy for the less fortunate.
So many Negroes in our town and others, attribute their home ownership very largely to Mr. Blanchard's generosity. He is not dead and cannot die so long as he has such noble deeds to live for him. He will live on and on in the hearts of our people.
