

Boy Scouting At Tuscarora

Below are several scenes taken a few days ago at Camp Tuscarora for Boy Scouts located near Dudley in Wayne County. Tuscarora Council serves Duplin, Sampson, Wayne and Johnson Counties. These scenes are typical during the summer seasons when our Scouts are encamping there. All photos are by Vaden Brock of the Mt. Olive Tribune.

ACTIVITY—Some of the Scouts watch their buddies in the water, but one of them decided it was time for him to take to the water so in he went, head first. On this raft, one of the several life guards stood watch.

OPEN GATES—Welcoming Scouts and visitors to the Boy Scouts' Camp Tuscarora are those open gates. At the rear of the gate at the right, the totem pole can be seen.

CHOW TIME—Jimmy Batson, Council Oliver, and Lawrence Hassell, left to right, were preparing to serve lunch to the hungry Scouts. The Scouts took turns working in the dining room. Those assigned to the dining room detail reported 15 minutes before the call to eat was sounded for the other Scouts.

FAVORITE SPOT—The lake at the camp where classes in swimming and life saving were conducted and where twice each day during the summer the Scouts could go for a swim.

clear as a part of the cultivated field. When this is the case they should be covered with an adapted permanent type forage crop and used as a waterway. As soon as the cover is established, terraces and cultivation should be arranged so surplus rain water is carried to the natural sod waterway.

QUESTION: How can I control the root knot nematode in my vegetable garden?

ANSWER: Root-knot, caused by microscopic nematodes is the most serious disease affecting summer vegetable crops in North Carolina. Control involves crop rotation and soil treatment. Your county agent can give you complete details, but simply stated the soil should be treated with ethylene dibromide, D-D mixture, or Uramon.

QUESTION: How should I start my chicks?

ANSWER: Place feed before the chicks in the very beginning. Start heavy breed chicks on chick grains the first two days, then provide mash in the hoppers (3 to 3 1/2 lbs. of feed will produce one pound of meat).

Mrs. Parker Hostess H. D. C.

The Home Demonstration Club met in the assembly room of the Church Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock for the monthly meeting with Mrs. J. H. Parker hostess. Mrs. M. L. Outlaw, president, called the club to order with the usual routine of services. Following the business session Mrs. Remus Creel gave an interesting demonstration on "Look Ahead, Cook Ahead and Freeze" in the absence of Mrs. Johnson, Home Agent. Project reports were Health, Education, 4-H Leader and Recreation. Refreshments were enjoyed by a splendid group of members during the recreation.

The club adjourned until the August recreation and music leaders reports.

It wouldn't be such a waste paying a doctor for advice if people only had sense enough to take it.

In the old days the evening's entertainment was opened with a hymn—now it takes jacks or better.

Negro County Agents At Meet

State College and Experiment Stations are as important to farmers of North Carolina as the various medical research organizations are to doctors, it was observed by some forty five Negro County Agents who recently attended a one day training school there. It was amazing how important the test tube and the microscope is to plain every day farmers who never see them, and almost pathetic when considering how far research is over actual practice. One agent estimated that $50,000,000 could be added to the agricultural economy of North Carolina annually if North Carolina farmers would be less indifferent to modern agriculture and farm organization.

Dr. Clarence Poe, Editor of the Progressive Farmer stated in a meeting of district agriculture workers that community organization is the farmer's greatest need.

Time is Money!

The time you spend on your job is money in your pay envelope.

Like time, this money has a way of "Flying" fast . . . from one day to the next. You can't make time stand still. But, you can make some of your money stand still . . . in a savings account. Not only stand still, but grow steadily via the interest it earns for you. Timely advice: Start a savings account at once. Then deposit a definite amount of money every pay day . . . before it gets a chance to fly!
