Miss Mary Evelyn Barden Says Vows In Rose Hill Presbyterian Church

Meredith College graduate Miss Mary Evelyn Barden became the bride of Cecil Hammond Rhodes here August 12 in a morning ceremony in Mount Zion Presbyterian Church, with the Rev. Vann Murray and the Rev. Wade H. Allison officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Atlas Barden of Rose Hill. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Robert Guy Rhodes of Richlands and the late Mr. Rhodes. Wedding music was presented by Russell Roebuck, organist, and Gene Barnes, both of Wilson.

Best man was Stephen F. Ammons of Lumber Bridge, with Haywood Hall and Stephen J. Shaw, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, as ushers.

Matron of honor was the bride's sister, Mrs. George P. Matthews, wearing a ballerina-length gown of coral net and imported lace over taffeta, fashioned with a Spencer jacket and net skirt. She wore matching net mitts and a half and half-hat of pleated net, and carried a nosegay of coral carnations and asters, tied with green satin ribbon.

The bride, escorted by her brother-in-law, Dr. George P. Matthews, and given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina-length gown of white Chantilly lace and satin, with a mandarin collar and jacket. The bouffant lace skirt had a nylon tulle panel of sunburst pleating with scallops. Her tiered veil of French illusion was attached to a matching lace hat edged with pleated tulle and iridescent pallidies.

She carried a nosegay topped with white carnations, centered with a white orchid showered with valley lilies.

The bride's mother wore a dress of blue lace embroidered in navy, with navy accessories and a corsage of pink roses. The bridegroom's mother wore a navy gown with matching accessories, and a corsage of pink roses.

After the ceremony the couple greeted guests in the vestibule. For travel the bride wore a suit of cornflower blue with white accessories, and a white orchid.

The bride will complete work for a master's degree at East Carolina College this fall. Mrs. Rhodes received her A. B. degree from Atlantic Christian College in Wilson and received her M. A. degree from East Carolina College in May.

Given in marriage by the Rev. Vann Murray, pastor of Mount Zion Presbyterian Church, the couple will be at home in Walstonburg.

MISS GEORGIE LEE ROUSE is the daughter of Mrs. Perry Barwick of Mount Olive and Edward Rouse of Seven Springs, who announce her engagement to Paul D. Grady, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Grady of Mount Olive. All full wedding is planned.

She attended Campbell College and has been employed by the State Military District in Raleigh.

The bridegroom, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cook of Columbus, Ind., was a 1953 graduate of North Carolina State College. He was a member of the College basketball squad for four years.
