Simpson-Phillips Vows Spoken In Jacksonville Church Rites

Jacksonville.—In an afternoon ceremony here September 29 in the First Baptist Church, Miss Nancy Louise Phillips became the bride of Delano Simpson with the Rev. Marvin R. Haire officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Phillips of Richlands and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Simpson of Beulaville.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore an ankle length dress of nylon net and lace over white satin and carried a bouquet of white roses. Her wedding veil was held by a tiara of seed pearls.

Attending her was her sister, Mrs. Alton Howard of Columbus, Ga., as matron of honor. She wore a ballerina length dress of lavender nylon net over taffeta and carried pink roses.

Bobby Phillips, brother of the bride, was best man. Ushers were Alton Howard, Robert Howard, George Howard and Harold Simpson.

Miss Mary Ellen Phillips, Miss Eleanor Biffle, Miss Spence Rhodes and Miss Jo Ann Bunn were the bridesmaids. They wore ballerina length dresses in pastel shades and carried bouquets of assorted flowers.

A program of nuptial music was presented by Miss Janet Harper at the organ and Miss Helen Bunn, soloist.

The mother of the bride wore a grey crepe dress with a corsage of red roses. The bridegroom's mother was gowned in navy with a red rose corsage.

After the wedding a reception was held in the home of the bride's mother, after which the couple left for a wedding trip through the western part of the State. Upon their return they will make their home in Kinston.
