51 Women Join H. D. Clubs Duplin County Past Year

Demonstration Clubs in Duplin County, 87 made perfect attendance and 17 have made perfect atendance the past five years.

There must be reasons why women are enthusiastic about the Home Demonstration Club and its activities. Following are reasons given by leaders and members that tell

"Home Demonstration Club work means to me an opportunity to meet once a month with women from my neighborhood who put the values of Home, Family and Community above all others. The demonstrations which our Home Agents give at these meetings bring to us the best home making information available in terms we can easily use in making better homes.

Home Demonstration Club work is the greatest channel open to rural women for the development of leadership. At each club meeting, and state meetings afford wonderful opportunities for the development of leadership.

The Home Demonstration Club member is a better home maker pecause she believes that "The Home" is the greatest institution in our country today and through the her family can enjoy the blessings goes into operation Friday to give Beulaville telephone subscribers local dial service for the first time. In the past, Beulaville residents have only been able to obtain rural party line service from the exchange in Kenansville, but that will all be history when the new exchange is "cut-over" at 7 o'clock next Friday morning.

With the installation of the new Beulaville plant, residents will have a choice of one, two or four party service where they have been able to obtain only multi-party rural service before.

This disclosure was made today by W. Y. Vann, local manager for Carolina Telephone and Telegraph Company, who stated that the change over from Kenansville to local dial service would cause only very slight if any interruption in telephone service for the people in Beulaville

The new central office building and equipment, built and installed at a cost of approximately $13,000, consists of automatic dial mechanism designed to accomodate 100

Each of these lines can serve one to four telephone subscribers, or in the case of rural subscribers, ten telephones can be served. Initially, ome 90 Beulaville subscribers including about 60 now served from Kenansville, will be served. However, in keeping with the telephone company's policy, this exchange was designed to serve future as well as present telephone needs of this town.

Outside plant facilities, which include telephone poles, cable and wires, were built as a cost of approximately $17,000 making the total cost of the new Beulaville telephone system an estimated $30,000

A new Warsaw telephone directory has been issued which has a special Beulaville section listed. Any subscribers who fail to receive their directory within the next few days should call the Warsaw business office of the telephone company.
