Miss Cameron, Mr. Jones Wed

Sunday Dec. 27th. at 7:30 o'clock in the evening, Miss Frances Joelle Cameron of Southern Pines, daughter of Mrs. C. E. Jordan of High Point and Arnold Murray Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Jones, Sr., of Warsaw, were united in marriage.

The double-ring ceremony was held at the Presbyterian Church, Warsaw, with the Rev. Norman H. Flowers, pastor, officiating. Mrs. W. J. Middleton, Jr., presented a program of nuptial music. Mrs. Tommie Phillips was soloist. The church was decorated with pines and smilax and featured a white center arch, where the couple stood while repeating the vows. Beneath the arch was a floor basket of white gadioli and pompons scheme of green and white.

The bride entered the church with her brother, Roland Jordan, who gave her in marriage. Her white gown was fashioned of Chantilly lace and featured a jacket with a high standup collar, self-covered buttons and long sleeves, ending in a point. The skirt was full-length, made of net with tiers of cascading, ruffles over bridal taffeta. Her fingertip veil was attached to a tiny cap of Chantilly lace. She carried a white Bible topped with a white purple-throated orchid and wore as her only ornament, a silver bracelet, gift of the bridegroom.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was her roommate, Miss Betty Beltzlaw of Southern Pines. Mrs. Robert L. Spencer of Chapel Hill was matron of honor and the bridesmaids were Mrs. W. C. Martin of Warsaw, a sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Nancy Lee Herring, former college roommate of the bride. Little Miss Carol Cameron Jordan attended her sister as flower girl.

The honor attendants carried arm bouquets of red carnations tied with silver braid and the bridesmaids carried red carnations tied with red satin. All were gowned alike in white net dresses with strapless brocade bodices and shrug jackets of silver brocade. Each attendant wore a red carnation in her hair. The flower girl wore white organdy over taffeta with a wide bertha collar and carried a basket of red and white carnation petals.

Miss Jean Newkirk, Warsaw; Miss Rosalie Daniels, Greensboro, and Miss Jeannette Van Boskerch, Pine Bluff, cousin of the bride, who acted as honorary bridesmaids also wore white. Attending the bridegroom as best man was his brother-in-law, W. C. Martin of Warsaw. Ushers were Frank Steed, I. J. Quinn, and Harold Matthis, all of Warsaw. Mrs. Jordan, mother of the bride, wore grey wool with a purple orchid. Mrs. W. B. Stein with whom the bride made her home in Southern Pines wore black crepe with white jacket, a purple orchid, and Mrs. Jones, mother of the bridegroom was gowned in navy blue crepe and also wore a purple orchid.

Guests signed the bride's book in the vestibule and were received at the door by the wedding party. Immediately following the ceremony, the couple left for Lynchburg, Natural Bridge and Washington, D. C. For the wedding trip, the bride changed to a beige knit suit and tiny yellow hat and brown accessories. At her shoulder she pinned the orchid from her bouquet. Mrs. Jones is a graduate of Jamestown High School, and Guilford College, where she received her A. B. degree in English. While at Guilford she was active in many organizations including the Revelers Club and was a member of the 1935 May Court. At present she is teaching the seventh grade in the Warsaw City Schools, where she is sponsor for the cheerleaders, majorettes and "Block W" Club. Mr. Jones was graduated from Warsaw High School and attended The Citadel, Charleston, S. C. where he majored in engineering. At present he is employed by Cumberland Dairy Products, Inc. of Clinton. On their return they will be at home at 111E. Hill St.

Herbert Charles Marshall, Jr., of Aberdeen, Md., attended his brother as best man. Ushers were William Donald Mallard of Salem, John Wilton Mallard of Raleigh, Jesse Litchfield Wilson of Charlotte and Warren Smith of Smithfield. For her daughters wedding Mrs. Smith wore a floor-length gown of changeable taffeta in shades of blue and green with a matching hat and long white gloves. She wore a corsage of pink roses.

The mother of the groom wore a floor-length gown of mauve crepe with a hat of iridescent sequins and long off-white gloves. Her corsage was of yellow roses. Immediately following the ceremony the parents of the bride entertained at a reception in their home. Receiving at the door and introducing to the receiving line were Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Glenn. The receiving line was composed of Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Marshall, the bride and groom, and members of the wedding party.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Warrick directed the guests into the dining room where Mrs. L. L. Nordan and Mrs. Kenneth Taylor were serving punch. The honorary bridesmaids, Mrs. Lehman Barnes, Mrs. J. H. Wiggs, Mrs. Jim Massey and Mrs. W. T. Dance assisted in serving. Receiving at large were Mr. and Mrs. Sam Godwin of Benson, Henry Daulton West of Greensboro, Miss Wilometta Smith and James B. Kelly of Richmond, Va., and Dr. Robert Smith of Jacksonville.

Mr. and Mrs. Otha Munden directed guests upstairs where Mrs. J. Charles Parrish and Mrs. Jesse Miss Anne Pope spent several days recently with her cousin, Ann Holloman, of Goldsboro.
