ATTENTION: Chairman, High-Seas Christmas Program... Dear Chapter Friends: The High-Seas Christmas packages which you forwarded to this office were received in good condition. They were placed aboard troop transports which were scheduled to be on the open sea at Christmas time, and on Christmas Day the gifts were distributed to the Servicemen.

Perhaps you will hear from the servicemen who received your gifts but if you do not, please be assured that your contribution will do much for the morale of these men who are enroute to faraway destinations.

Please extend to all members of your community who assisted in this program our gratitude and the sincere thanks of the military as expressed by the Commanding General of the Port of Embarkation.

Yours very truly, Raymond J. Gilbreth, Field Director

Kenansville sent 8 packages valued at $150 each. The four Kern Star charges in Duplin County financed the project donating 2 each. Their chapters are at Wallace, Rose Hill, Beaufort and Kenansville.

To Enter Contest... The Duplin County Home Demonstration Choral Group plans to enter Radio Station W. P. T. F. Choral Contest this year. The first practice of this group will take place Tuesday afternoon, January 12, in the Kenansville High School Auditorium at two o'clock.

Mrs. L. K. Alderman will groom the group for this contest. Any Home Demonstration Club member who is interested is urged to attend.
