Took Trunk Ride
Marines Les F. Dunne, 20; Jerry G. Bochus, 19, and Paul F. Durkin 22, all of Camp LeJeune have been ordered to pay Turner Tractor and Implement Company of Pink Hill and Kinston, the sum of $187.00 for damages done to a new tractor they "Borrowed" from the company's Kinston plant recently to pull their automobile, which was stuck out of the mud. They said they did not know that the radiator had no water in it. Gaskets and other parts inside the motor were burned out. A fourth marine, asleep in the car at the time, was found not guilty of the charges, but his buddies said they would force him to ride in the trunk of the car back to the base.
