Carl Bishop Home Saved, Fast Action

The home of Carl Bishop west of Magnolia was saved Saturday night by the Magnolia fire Department and quick action by Scout Master John Smith, "Bunky" Evans and McDonald Bessley.

Mr. Bishop and his family were away from home when fire broke out in the kitchen of his home. McDonald Bessley rushed to town to report the fire. John Smith and "Bunky" Evans proceeded to carry out the kitchen cabinet and stove and the fire department put out the fire. The kitchen was the only room damaged.

Cause of the fire is not known but believed to have been started by mice striking matches in the kitchen cabinet.
