The trouble with many people is that they are given to small talk in large quantities.

Teen-Age Column

By Kenansville Beta Club

The members of the Beta Club of Kenansville wish to present "Teen Age Column," to be published weekly in this paper. News, gossip, essays, short stories, poetry, and any other writing falling under the heading of literature will be found in this column. We hope the largely local work contributed to this paper will provide special entertainment to the grown-ups as well as to the growing-ups. Keep up with your town's teen-age views of life through "Teen Age Column."

Music Class
The music class of Mrs. Henry Selby held its mid-year piano recital at 2:00 p.m., Tuesday, February 23. Twenty-nine music pupils played their selections on the Grand piano in the Kenansville school auditorium. For some of the smaller kids in their first year of music, performing was quite a new experience. It was a show in itself to watch their pride after having played. Those attending the recital were several students from all grades, some of the school teachers, and a few parents and other outsiders.

Initiation and Spaghetti
"You must be used to eating with a knife at home, Ray!" Marjorie Cherry said. The whole table of spaghetti eaters doubled over with laughter. Wednesday night, February 8, the nine old Beta Club members, plus Mrs. F. W. McGowan, their sponsor, were initiating ten new members into the organization in the Kenansville Home Economics Department. Ray Bell, one of the new members, had been making faster progress eating his spaghetti with a knife (all new members had to eat with knives) than most of the old members had been making by eating with forks and spoons.

A toss salad served with a spaghetti supper was a 'hand to mouth' course for all those being initiated. But, to make their eating even more uncomfortable, former Beta members required them to wear their clothes backwards!

All during the meal, old members promised the new ones that the best was yet to come. For as soon as they had eaten, those being initiated donned aprons and washed the dishes.

The old club members had one more trick up their sleeves when they told the new members they were going to carry them to Po-ducksville. It seemed none of them could remember ever having been there, though it was a fact that all of them had been. But when the Beta Club wound up in Goldsboro, the new members quickly recovered their memories and found it quite a nice surprise. The Beta Club saw the movie, "Vicki", at the Paramount theatre while there, and then stopped for refreshments at an Amoco grill just outside of Goldsboro.

To sum the whole thing up, the initiation was a hilarious success. There's nothing I look forward to with more anticipation. Than taking it upon myself To give initiations. But though I very often hear The laughter of old members near. The victims of my talents never show appreciation.

Look Out Hubert
Look out Hubert Brown! Your barbering has competition. Bill Quinn received a free haircut from some high school boys during the Kenansville school lunch period, Tuesday. However, I don't believe Bill was satisfied with the results.
