Hobbs and Mr. Bissette Wed Candlelight Ceremony In Faison Church

In a candlelight double-ring ceremony, Miss Mary Ellen Hobbs of Faison became the bride of Jack Clifton Bissette of Goldsboro, last night, Feb. 25, in the Faison Baptist Church with the bride's pastor, the Rev. M. M. Turner officiating.

The couple entered the church together unattended and spoke their vows before a background of palms, floor baskets of pink carnations, gladioli and seven-branched candelabra holding pink cathedral tapers.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Henry Hobbs of Faison and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Z. Clifton Bissette of Goldsboro.

A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. B. F. McColman, pianist, including, "Evening Star" by Wagner, "I Love Thee" by Greig and "Traumerel" by Schumann. The traditional wedding marches were used. The Rev. Harold Minor, soloist, sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly."

Ushers were: Sam Bissette of Wilmington, brother of the bridegroom, and Frederick B. Sternberger of Wilmington.

For the wedding the bride wore a navy blue wool suit with white nylon blouse, navy blue shoes and bag and white straw hat. She carried a white prayer book topped with a purple-throated orchid showered with white satin streamers.

The bride was graduated from Faison High School with the Class of 1951, attended Pinebluff College and has since done stenographic work for Southern Produce Distributors in Faison.

The bridegroom was graduated from New Hanover High School in Wilmington with the Class of 1945, attended Campbell College and served three years with the U. S. Navy. He is associated with his father in the insurance business in Goldsboro.

The bride's mother wore a black crepe dress with black and white accessories and a pink carnation corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a Navy blue dress with navy blue accessories and a pink carnation corsage.

After a short wedding trip, the couple will be at home at 208 N.
