MOch 28 - April 4 Is Youth Week At Warsaw Baptist

In preparation for the eventful Youth Week to be observed by the Warsaw Baptist Church March 28 - April 4, the greater council met on Thursday night to lay final plans. Marvin Sutton, youth week pastor, had his full deaconship, church council, and other representatives present to present detail plans for each phase of the work. Special committees have been selected and great days are ahead according to the youth reporter.

Sunday, March 28, the entire Sunday school will be managed by the youth. Gerald Quinn will serve as Sunday School superintendent and every class will have a new teacher for the day. Likewise, each Union will have new directors and counselors for the Training Union Deems Pollock serving as General Director, Miss Wilms Brinson will be the president of the Woman's Missionary Union and she has working with her a full corps of officers and circle chairmen. All teachers, counselors, and chairmen will be named later. Chairman of the deaconship is George West. His group has many activities on schedule. During the morning and evening worship hour, March 28, the youth week pastor, Marvin Sutton, will bring the messages, supported by the youth choir, youth ushers, and youth deacons.

Following a strenuous week of worthwhile activities of worship, service, recreation, the climax will be the youth revival on Friday night, Saturday and Sunday. Charlie Allen, of Wake Forest, who has been youth week speaker for three previous years, will again come with his excellent team to conduct the hours of worship during the youth revival. With him comes music director and a special soloist. The members of the team are the same as those who participated last year. Work and more work under the guidance of youth who are dedicated to an opportunity to be and give their best for Christ in Warsaw is the plan ahead. Approximately 75 young people of the Baptist Church will be in active service throughout the week.

Robert L. West Seeks Judgeship

Robert L. West, recently released from active duty with the U. S. Air Force, announced from his home in Warsaw, N. C. that he is a candidate for Judge of the General County Court.

Re-opening his office in Warsaw in January Mr. West said "I have been running for the office of Judge of the General County Court of Duplin County since involuntarily recalled to active duty in 1951." He has held that office from 1947 to 1951 and previously served as solicitor in the same Court. He believes that his previous services to the people of Duplin County qualifies him to again hold this high office of public trust.

West was born in Magnolia in 1908 the son of J. J. and Bertha P. West he attended the public schools at Warsaw, Louisburg College, Duke University, and received a special law degree from Wake Forest College Law School in 1938. He is licensed to practice law in all the State Courts and before the United States Supreme Court. He is married to the former Anne Van Wyke Pollock of Kinston, N. C.

Always active in civic life Mr. West has served as Secretary of the Warsaw Chamber of Commerce for more than 15 years. He has served as County Chairman for the American Red Cross, the USO and other organizations. He has been president of the Duplin County club and in 1940 he was State Treasurer of the Young Democratic Clubs of North Carolina organizing Eastern North Carolina Clubs for the YDC of America.

Mr. West is a Mason, a National Sojourner and a Shriner.

He is active in his church, having served as Superintendent of the Church School, Steward, Teacher of the Mens Bible Class and Church Lay Leader.

He volunteered for federal service with the U. S. Air Force in March 1942 and served 4-1/2 years. During World War II, he served in Florida, Utah, and while with the Twentieth Air Force in the Pacific was stationed on Saipan, Tinian, Guam, Iwo Jima, Japan and in the Philippines. A Colonel in the U. S. Air Force Reserve, he was involuntarily recalled to active duty during the Korean Emergency.

Mr. West said he had served his people in the County, State, and Nation and that he particularly likes working with the people in Duplin County, that he enjoys the work with its citizens, the members of the bar and the law enforcement officers.

Services At Warsaw Methodist Church

Worship Services will be held at the Warsaw Methodist Church each evening Mon., Mar. 8 through Fri. March 12. The services begin at 7:45 P.M. The Rev. E. Gene Purcell of Aboetie, North Carolina will be the guest minister for the week. The public is cordially invited to worship with us.

Miss Chambers Is Church Guest

"Telling the Story in the Home-land" will be the theme of the dynamic message to be delivered at the Warsaw Baptist Church by Miss Irene Chambers, Sunday evening, March 7 during the evening worship hour. The pastor, Dr. Alton W. Greenlaw, announced her visit to be one of the highlight occasions of the church year.

Forceful and dynamic in personality and convictions Miss Chambers has no hesitation of speech nor lack of words to describe actual economic and spiritual conditions existing throughout the south. For several years she has been serving as a field representative of the Baptist Home Mission Board and in this capacity she travels constantly throughout the Southern Baptist Convention territory - 32 states, to study the needs of the people and to promote avenues of meeting the needs. She attends conferences, institutes, and assemblies to present the challenging opportunities and appeals.

On Monday night Miss Chambers will be the visiting speaker at the general W. M. U. meeting at the church at 8 o'clock. As program chairman Mrs. N. A. Mitchell will have charge of the devotional features to be followed by the informational and inspirational address by Miss Chambers.

The public is cordially invited to both services in which this outstanding and well informed speaker shall share of her travels, studies and personal experiences in the fields of missionary endeavor throughout the south.
