TODAYS Menu

New Ways with Everyday Food

By ALICE DENHOFF
MEALTIME miscellany today, leading off with a recipe for delicious sweet potato balls.
 Combine 3 c. mashed sweet potatoes with 1 beaten egg, 2 tbs. sugar and 1/2 tsp. salt. Shape into 4 to 6 balls, putting 1 tsp. of peanut butter in the center of each.
 Roll balls in cracker meal, coating well. Fry in deep hot fat (375° F.) until delicately browned. Drain on absorbent paper and serve.
Meat Loaf Transformed
 Meat loaf again, yes, but glamorized with a stuffing.
 Combine and mix well, 1 1/2 lb. real and 8 oz. pork, both ground, 2 tsp. salt, 2 tbs. minced onion, 1/2 tsp. pepper, 1/2 tsp. sage, 1/2 tsp. prepared mustard, 2 tbs. finely chopped green pepper, a grated garlic bud, 2 finely rolled shredded wheat biscuits, 1/2 c. ketchup, 1/2 c. milk and 1 beaten egg.
 Line bottom and sides of greased loaf pan with mixture. Fill center with stuffing. Cover with remaining meat mixture, pressing firmly. Bake at 350° F. for 1 hour. Serves 8.
 To prepare stuffing, combine and mix well, 3 finely rolled shredded wheat biscuits, 2 tbs. each minced onion and chopped celery leaves, 1/2 tsp. pepper, 2 tbs. melted butter and 1/4 c. hot water.
Butterscotch Rice Pudding is a good choice to finish off a meal that is a little on the light side.
 To serve 6, wash 1/2 c. rice and cook until nearly tender in double boiler with 2 c. scalded milk and 1/4 tsp. salt. Meanwhile, in a shallow pan, cook together 2 tbs. butter and 1 c. brown sugar until mixture becomes very dark brown but not burnt. Add this to rice and milk, and finish cooking until rice is tender and caramel melted.
 Pour 1/2 c. cold water in bowl, sprinkle thick plain gelatin on top of water; add 1 c. hot milk, stirring until dissolved. Add gelatin to rice mixture and turn into mold that has been rinsed in cold water; chill.
 When firm, unmold and serve plain, or with whipped cream or fruit sauce. Serves 6.

Scotts Store H. D. Club Meets

"Take more time to conserve food for the home" said Miss Mae Hager, assoc. agent at a meeting of the Scott's Store Club which was held in the home of Mrs. Emmet Kelly on Wednesday afternoon, March 3.
 Miss Hager gave a demonstration on "Food Conservation" by using "The Wheel of Good Eating." The wheel contained seven spokes, each spoke represented a group of the seven basic foods which should be eaten daily. The agent urged the group to save more fruits and vegetables not only by freezing but by canning, drying and putting into storage. Save your own foods and get better quality with less cost.
 The group was assisted by the agent in judging a collection of canned fruits and vegetables that had been taken to the meeting by the members.
 Mrs. Cecil Kornegay, music leader, gave her report and read a poem "Bless This House." It is used as a song also and is one of Mrs. Eisenhower's favorite poems.
 Miss Lorena Walker gave a health report and Mrs. Sam Walker being clothing leader showed and talked about a collection of costume jewelry she had gotten together.
 After all demonstrations and business was completed the roll was called and each member answered with a helpful hint.
 Mrs. Kelly assisted by Mrs. Sam Walker served refreshments to 23 members present.
