Penney-Hamrick Vows Spoken In Shelby Baptist Church

Saturday, March sixth at the Webb Chapel, First Baptist Church at four o'clock in the afternoon in a ceremony characterized with reverence and charm, Mrs. Hugh Ferguson Hamrick of Shelby and Charles Brantley Penney of Wallace, were united in marriage. Dr. Zeno Wall, former pastor of the bride at the ceremony church officiated with the double ring rites and Mrs. Hubert Plaster was at the organ for a program of nuptial music using the traditional wedding marches and including in her medley, Prelude in A Major, Chopin, Clair de Lune, Debussy, Poem, Fibich, Baarrolle, 'Offembach, Estrellita, by Ponce, Melodie by Massenet and used McDowell's To A Wild Rose as quiet background music to the exchange of vows.

A giant circular burst-design of all white flowers and greenery was posed high in a floor basket to mark the center of the altar where the bride and groom exchanged their vows, and white satin pewmarkers designated the seats reserved for family members. The bride entered the Chapel on the arm of her eldest brother, Graham Randolph Logan, who gave her in marriage. For her wedding ensemble she chose an Oxford blue imported Italian silk suit worn with a French milan plateau bonnet by Adrienne, wreathed with white lilacs dotted with rhinestones, nestled in veiling. Her other accessories were navy blue and she had a white orchid pinned at her shoulder. Her jewelry was a beautiful twisted choker of pearls, rhinestones and blue stones with matching eardrops, a gift from the groom. Jennings Bryan Penney of Rose Hill served his brother as best man. The new Mrs. Penney is a daughter of Mrs. Hugh Allison Logan and the late Mr. Logan of Shelby. She was graduated from Shelby High School and attended Woman's College, U.N.C. Greensboro, since which time she has been highly active in Shelby social and civic life. She is past president of the American Legion Auxiliary, serving more than one term was charter president of the V. F. W. Post Auxiliary. She has served as department officer of that group and is currently department junior vice-president of the V.F.W. Auxiliary. She is a member of the Literati Book club. She is a past executive secretary of the local Red Cross Chapter and a former deputy clerk in the Cleveland County Superior Court. Just prior to her marriage she resigned her position as assistant Clerk of the Records Court.

The groom, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Early Robert Penney at attended State College, Raleigh where he was a member of Alpha Lambda Tau fraternity. He attended M.P.C.I. in Mt. Pleasant and is now associated in business with his brother in Penney's Building Supplies, Inc. in Wallace. The wedding guest list included family members and close friends, the following coming from out-of-town especially to attend the ceremony: Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Guthrie, Mr. and Mrs. Guthrie, Jr. of Kenansville; Mrs. A. A. Kafer and daughter, Jo of New Bern; Mr. and Mrs. Jennings B. Penney of Rose Hill; Miss Evelyn Penney of Beaufort, Mr. and Mrs. Dean F. Duncan of Raleigh and Mr. and Mrs. Duncan, Jr. of Hockingham, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Duncan of Charlotte and Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Logan and sons, Chip and Michael of Kannapolis. Following the ceremony the couple left for a southern wedding trip and after March 17th will be at home at 411 East Main Street, Wallace.

Dinner Party and Breakfast Friday evening, Mr. and Mrs. A.A. Kafer, Jr. and daughter, Jo, of New Bern entertained at the Hotel Charles in the private dining room with a lovely dinner party for Mrs. Hugh F. Hamrick and C. B. Penney, whose marriage took place Saturday. Mrs. Kafer is a sister of Mr. Penney's. Mrs. Hamrick chose for the affair a chartreuse iridescent tulle after-five frock worn with rhinestone jewelry and had a white pill carnation corsage at her shoulder, a gift from the hosts. The long dining table was covered with a white party cloth and had at each table end a five branched silver candelabra holding white burning candles, the epergnette filled with bridal flowers. Single silver candel-holders holding white candles marked the length of the table to each branched candelabra. Silver favor cups holding mints added to the decor and the guests also had malice legs filled with rice at their places. Bridal place-cards completed the charming appointment. The host couple presented the bride with a covered silver serving dish. Covers were laid for twenty guests, all members of the two immediate families.

Saturday at 12 o'clock, noon, brothers and sisters of Mrs. Hugh Hamrick, Mr. and Mrs. Yates McSwain, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Logan, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Logan, Jr. of Shelby, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Duncan of Raleigh and Mr. and Mrs. Evans Logan of Kannapolis entertained with a delightful breakfast at the McSwain home on DeKalb street.

The bride chose a pink silk shantung tailored frock, trimmed with sequines and had a white Frenched carnation corsage at her shoulder. A profusion of spring flowers decorated the party room and in the dining room where the breakfast was served buffet style, the table was covered with a white hand-crocheted cloth and centered with an artistic design of white spring flowers arranged with japonica. The host couple assisted the guest in serving themselves and members of the two families and Dr. and Mrs. Zeno Wall were present for the affair. The host couples presented the bride with a silver service as her wedding gift.

Why value-wise buyers are swinging to Ford!

They are finding that Ford brings them everything they might want to meet modern tastes and requirements

You can't buy better! It's the stunning Customline Fordor Sedan.

Ford's the only low-priced car with all these "Worth More" features

Recognized leadership in styling
You can pay more but you'll never find a car that's more "at home" wherever you may drive it. For the smart new '54 Ford is as modern as tomorrow with the crisp, commanding lines of today's style leader. And it's just as smart inside! The sparkling new decorator-designed interiors have colorful new upholstery fabrics and harmonizing trim that spell quality wherever you look.

Choice of most modern engines
Ford and Ford alone, in the low-price field, offers you a choice of V-8 or Six... the brilliant new 130-h.p. Y-block V-8 or the flashing new 115-h.p. I-block Six. Both Ford engines have rigid, extra-deep blocks for smoothest, quietest operation and extra-long life... plus the savings and "GO" of modern, short-stroke, low-friction design.

Ball-Joint Front Suspension
For the first time in any low-priced car, you get the smoother riding and easier handling of Ball-Joint Front Suspension—an advance you'd expect to find only in the costliest cars.

Choice of 5 power assists... including Fordomatic
Only Ford in the low-price field offers power on all four windows... a 4-way power seat which adjusts up and down as well as forward and back. Power steering, power brakes and versatile Fordomatic Drive are also available—and they make your fine Ford even more fun to drive.

Choice of 26 new models
With fourteen stunning body styles available with either of Ford's new engines, Ford offers the widest selection of models in the entire industry.

Top value at resale
Used car prices show that in recent years Ford has consistently returned a higher proportion of its original cost at resale than any other car. And for 1954, with all its advanced new features, Ford is worth even more.

We cordially invite you to Test Drive the 1954
