club was opened by the president, was repeated in unison by the group. The minutes were read and the business transacted. Plans were made for sponsoring the New Hanover High School Jr. Band on Monday, March 22nd at the local school and theatre. Mrs. L. A. Wilson was asked to be hostess in the afternoon to the band group.

A nominating committee was elected: Mrs. H. S. Ward, Mrs. L. B. Brummitt and Mrs. E. G. Murray. The program committee: Mrs. L. B. Brummitt and Mrs. C. F. Hawes presented an interesting program of folk music. Mrs. Brummitt told of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Campbell collecting folk lore in the southern mountains, and Mrs. Campbell started the John C. Campbell Folk School at Brasstown, N. C., where folk music and dancing are taught and in other ways help to keep alive the rich heritage of folk lore in that section of the county.

Woman's Club Meets, President Hostess

The Rose Hill Woman's Club met in the school auditorium on Wednesday afternoon, March 24, at 3:00 o'clock with Mrs. William H. Fussell, president, presiding. The meeting was opened with the club-woman's Hymn followed with prayer by the chaplain, Mrs. R. L. Carr. During the business session, Mrs. L. Clayton Herring announced that the whole town of Rose Hill was included in the clean-up, paint-up, fix-up campaign currently sponsored by the club; that the judges had made their first tour of inspection and would return at the end of the campaign to award prizes.

The President announced that Mrs. Earl Jones had volunteered her services as girl Scout Leader. Mrs. Jones will begin active duty in the fall. Mrs. Laura Ramsey's application for club membership was most happily received.

The Welfare Department of the club is attempting to build up a clothes closet in the school to supply the needs of underprivileged children and urged the cooperation of all club members and school patrons who feel that they have some article to contribute.

The Garden Department of the club was in charge of the program. Mrs. E. G. Murray, chairman, presented Mr. Harry G. Davis of Goldsboro, Field representative for California Spray Chemical corporation, who showed a film depicting the beauty and uniqueness of European Gardens, beginning with the Royal Gardens in England, and traveling from there through France, Switzerland, Italy and Holland. Following the film, Mr. Davis gave some very timely comments on the control of many plant diseases and insects.

Mrs. Steve Wilkins, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Jane Wilkins delighted the audience with a vocal solo "Trees".

At the close of the program the club members and their guests were invited into the school lunchroom where a lovely Spring Flower Show had been arranged. Mrs. W. T. Blanchard, chairman of the judges, commented on the arrangements, explaining their reasons for selecting certain arrangements as winners.

A delightful sweet course was served by the hostess, Mrs. W. H. Allison, Mrs. C. F. Hawes and Mrs. Eldridge Teachey.
