$200 Damage Caused By Fire

A fire originated from an oil stove caused approximately $200.00 damage to the home of Mrs. E. H. Thigpen Sunday around 12 noon. The apartment where the fire started was occupied by Mrs. Scott Turner who was slightly burned, and whose kitchen furniture was a complete loss. When the alarm sounded a crowd gathered and extinguished the blaze.

W.M.S. Meet At Baptist Church

"Lifting America's Morals" was the program studied last week when the Beulaville Baptist W.M.S. met with 61 percent. The bulletin board held a large white poster, printed, "The Big Four" and under the heading "Juvenile Delinquency," "Family Relations," "Racial Prejudice" and "Alcoholism."

Mrs. Orvis Thigpen presided, directing the group in hymn singing and prayer. The secretary reports were given by Mrs. Lula Q. Parker and Community Missions plans made for ensuing months. Trumpeter Ervin Dobson opened the meeting with the national Anthem.

Miss Zelma Matthews led the devotional period, "Feet of Clay," Daniel 2:31-38. Miss Glenda Cummings, Mrs. George Whaley, Mrs. Rhea Hunter, Mrs. Jay Thomas and Mrs. Horace Cottle developed the first part of the program in playette form, "Some One Has To Care." Mrs. Orvis Thigpen, program chairman introduced members of the W. M. U. to develop the latter part in a table discussion.

The phrases of the big four were given by Mesdames Paul Parker, Marion Bratcher, Bud Miller and Hosesa Hunter. Pledge to the Christian and America flags and the Bible were given by the group. Soloist, C. P. Howering sang, "God Bless America." Prayer dismissed the group.

The dining hall was decorated in the patriotic motif. The serving table was centered with an arrangement of white spirea flanked with flags and red and white paper strips were draped together and carried from the center to each corner of the table and tied.

Ribbon sandwiches in red, white and blue, jello with whipped cream in red fruit cups, cake and coffee was served.

Miss Lou Jackson was in charge of the decorations and refreshments. Assisting her were Mrs. R. S. Bostic, Mrs. F. L. Noyris, Mrs. Horace Brinson, Mrs. Thelma Thomas and Mrs. Barbara Thomas.

Mrs. Oren Bruton of Kinston was an out-of-town visitor to the meeting.

Youth Fellowship Organized

A Youth Fellowship has been organized at the Beulaville Presbyterian Church. The group leader is Mrs. E. J. Sandlin, Jr. and assisting her are Mrs. Scott Smith and Mrs. Russell Lanier. Mrs. Ray Cupp directs the music. Officers are: president, Agnes Lanier; Vice-president, Willie Horne; Secretary, Elaine Brown; Treasurer, Joyce Blizard; Program chairman, Marie Smith.

The intermediate group leader is Mrs. Morris Jackson; assistants, Mrs. Aubrey Johnston and Mrs. Joe Albertson. Officers are: Royce Jones, president; Judy Scholar, vice-president; Imogene Jackson, Secretary; Willie Owen Guy, Treasurer; Sally Jo Kennedy, program chairman. The group meet each Sunday afternoon at six o'clock.

Mrs. Leland Grady has been the Director, who is organizing the fellowship.

Auxiliary Meet

The Home Mission Auxiliary of Beulaville Holiness Church met for their monthly meeting. Mrs. Hampton presided and led the opening prayer. The program of the month was developed by group discussion. A business meeting gave secretary reports by Mrs. J. H. Whaley and Mrs. Owen Edwards, the treasurers report. Plans were made for a supper to be held at the school cafeteria on April 10th from 5 to 8 o'clock.

The group dismissed with prayer.

Attend Funeral

Mr. and Mrs. John Miller and Nancy were in Rameur Sunday to attend the funeral of Rev. Thomas Green at the Park Cross Roads Christian Church.

John Ivey Thomas Chapter UDC Meet

The John Ivey Thomas Chapter of the U.D.C. met March 22 at the home of Mrs. Lou Belle Williams with Mrs. Herman Miller, president, presiding.

Attractive arrangements of tulips, azaleas and daffodils were used throughout the house. Rituals and flag salutes were led by the Chaplain. Reports from the secretary and treasurer were heard. During the business session Mrs. Grady Mercer's name was presented for consideration of becoming a member of the chapter. She was accepted unanimously.

"Correct Uses of the American Flag" was interestingly presented by Mrs. Harry Venters of Richlands. Other Richlands guests were Miss Athalia Koonce and Mrs. Charles Blevins. Mrs. Grady Mercer was also a guest.

The chapter was dismissed by Mizpah. A social hour followed when the hostess invited the guests into the dining room where a delicious salad plate and iced drinks were served from a table covered in white with a centerpiece of yellow-jonquils.
