

Rose Hillian Writes N.C. Poem

The N. C. Poem of Today, a daily feature in the News and Observer, was written by Arlene F. Lockerman in last Sunday's paper. The poem:

PRACTICE PAINTING
Paint a pretty picture
Really it is simple
Paint a girl with a yellow curl
And maybe add a dimple.

If you find a landscape
More suited to your style,
Try sitting on a hillside
Painting nature for a while.

Anyone can draw a leaf
Or paint a starry sky—
Put some petals on a stem
Or make a bluebird fly.

But if you fall completely
Please don't get out of heart.
Daub some colors here and there
And call it modern art.

Miss Laura West Bride-Elect, Honored

Miss Laura West, bride-elect, was honored Wednesday evening at 7:30 when Mrs. J. E. West, Mrs. Macdonald Brock and Miss Betty West entertained with a miscellaneous shower at Mrs. West's home on College Street.

The home was attractively decorated with greenery, mixed spring flowers and candles.

The dining table was laid with a lace cloth centered with an arrangement of white carnations, pom-poms, gladioli and candles.

Miss West was presented a corsage upon arrival.

After playing games, guests were invited into the dining room where they were served bridal ices, mints and nuts. They were then directed into the living room where Miss West was seated at a table filled with gifts.

Invited guests were: Miss West, honoree, Misses Sue Shine, Hazel Mathis, Joyce Whittle, Agnes Turnage, Jean Newkirk, Lib West, Betty Phillips, Lillian Sholar, Lillie Mae Phillips, Mesdames H. M. West, Jr., Jim Fulford, Norman Jones, Paul B. Berry, George Sutton, Glen Brown, W. P. West, J. N. West, Jr., Billy Houston and Kenneth Brock.

gave interesting reports on Health, Music, and clothing.

During the recreational period several games were enjoyed. Mrs. Whitman served coconut pie and coffee.

Comments

BILLY GRAHAM, Noted Evangelist:
"The Martin Luther" film is one of the most phenomenal and thrilling stories of modern times. No punches are pulled in giving the full story of why and how Protestantism was born and how justification by faith became the watchword of the church. I would like to urge Christians of every denomination to see it. It will strengthen their faith."

DR. J. MANNING POTTS, Editor of "Upper Room" Methodist Magazine: "At long last a great Protestant film has been produced. What is more fitting than that it should be on Martin Luther, the father of the Reformation. Not only Protestants, but people of all faiths should see this extraordinary historic production."

DR. JAMES G. PATTON, Ex. Sec. General Council, Presbyterian Church, U. S. (South): "The Luther film is a must for every Christian. It is not only a thrilling movie, but it tells in an unforgettable way the story of religious freedom in a day when that story is so sorely needed. Thank God for Luther, Lutherans and the Luther film."
