Music Recital Presented

The music pupils of Mrs. Alice Rogers and the Glee Clubs under the direction of Mrs. Helen Johnson of Warsaw presented their music recital Monday night in the school auditorium.

The program opened with solos, interspersed by duets, group singing by the first and second grades, Junior Glee Club and High School Glee Club. Duets and piano solos were given throughout the program. The recital was well given and enjoyed by everyone present.

Easter Service

A special Easter Service has been planned for Magnolia Methodist Church for Sunday at 9:00 A. M. The service will be on the order of a Sunrise Service with Easter Music, Easter Responses, and a brief Easter Meditation by the pastor. Since there is no regular Worship Service scheduled for Easter Sunday, all members are urged to attend this service and remain for the Sunday School at 10:00 a.m. The congregation and the pastor extend an invitation to all the people of the community to join in this service.

Services

This week in the Churches of Magnolia there were a series of services sponsored by the Citizens For Good Government Organization of Duplin County. The schedule for the week was as follows:

Tuesday, April 13 - Methodist Church - K. D. Brown.
 Wednesday, April 14 - F. W. Baptist - Matthew Hobbs.
 Thursday, April 15 - Carol St. - J. D. Everett.
 Friday, April 16 - The Baptist Church - J. G. White.

Magnolia Seniors Visit E.C.C. Friday

The Magnolia Senior Class, with Mrs. C. H. Pope and Mrs. Abbie Smith chaperoning, enjoyed a trip to East Carolina College in Greenville last Friday when High School Day was held.

Misses Betty Jean Johnson and Barbara Tucker, freshmen at the College acted as guides to the group. There were many interesting things to see and do. Exhibits, fashion show, a musical comedy, "Banana Moon", baseball game, tea dance and many new buildings.

On Saturday evening for the wedding party and guests. The home was en suite for the occasion. White gladioli, snapdragons, and carnations were effectively used throughout the rooms.

The dining table was overlaid with a lovely cutwork cloth. The three-tiered wedding cake was placed on one end of the table and the punch bowl was on a reflector at the other end of the table. The centerpiece was a five-branched silver candelabra showered with pink satin ribbon. Dainty nosegays of white mums tied with pink ribbon were featured at the base of the candelabra. Following the traditional cake cutting by the bride and groom-to-be, Mrs. J. F. May, mother of the bride, served bridal cake to the guests and Mrs. Donald Davis served punch.

On Sunday, Mrs. Rowland J. Smith of Kinston and Mrs. W. E. Simmons of Goldsboro entertained at a Bridal Luncheon at the home of Mrs. J. J. Smith in Pink Hill for the bridal party and out-of-town relatives.

In the beautifully decorated home a delicious luncheon was served to the 3 attending guests.

MISS JULIE ELISCHER of Germany and Sgt. James Derald Spell of Magnolia were united in marriage, March 10, 1964 in Nurnberg, Germany. Sgt. Spell is the son of Mrs. Lula Matthews of Magnolia. He has been stationed in Germany, three years in July.

Reception-Cake Cutting For Hedstrom-May

Immediately following the ceremony the parents of the bride entertained at a reception at their home. The guests were greeted at the door by Dr. and Mrs. D. W. Ruffin of Pink Hill and Mr. and Mrs. Harry McDonald of New Bern.

In the living room, where the receiving line assembled, beautiful floral arrangements of white gladioli, white snapdragons and greenery were used.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Southerland of Wallace invited the guests into the dining room. The bridal table was overlaid with a white slipper satin cloth and a lovely white net skirt. Each corner of the beautifully appointed table featured dainty miniature corsages. The centerpiece of French carnations, white snapdragons and smilax was arranged in a silver bowl and flanked by tied with satin ribbons and net.

Mrs. Howard Farley of Kinston poured the silver tea service and Mrs. Donald Davis of Minneapolis, sister of the groom served white decorated bridal cakes. The honorary bridesmaids assisted in serving.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Simmons of Goldsboro invited the guests upstairs to the gift room. The stairway was entwined with ivy and greenery. The newel post featured a large satin bow arranged with white gladioli.

The gift rooms were presided over by Mesdames Roland Grady of Wilson, R. L. May of New Bern and Andrew Patterson of Kenansville. Mr. and Mrs. Rowland J. Smith of Kinston registered the guests in the bride's book and the goodbyes were said by Mr. and Mrs. Walter M. Rivenbark of Wallace.

Mr. and Mrs. May were assisted at the reception by Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Carr of Wallace, and Messrs. Roland Grady of Wilson and Howard Farley of Kinston.

Mrs. Hedstrom is a graduate of Pink Hill High School and Flora McDonald College at Red Springs. She is now employed as Technical Research Librarian at the DuPont Plant near Kinston. Mr. Hedstrom was graduated from the University of Minnesota and served in the U. S. Air Force. Prior to coming to Kinston as a flight instructor at Stallings Air Base, he was on the faculty of Duke University at Durham.

For a two-week wedding trip to Miami, Fla. and Nassau, Mrs. Hedstrom changed to a maize light-weight flannel suit lined with scarlet and styled with a button-on cape also lined with scarlet. She used a natural hat and matching accessories, and wore the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

Upon their return the couple will make their home at 1101 1/2 North Queen Street.

Civic Club Met

The Magnolia Womens Civic Club met in the home of Mrs. Clifton Chestnutt Monday night. Mrs. Roscoe Potter, president called the meeting to order. Mrs. Clifton Chestnutt read the minutes and Miss Betty Horne, gave the treasurers report.

It was decided by the members that all clothes at the rummage sale be reduced in order to make room for summer clothes coming in. This sale will begin Saturday, April 24. Anyone wishing to help out may bring old clothing, pot plants, canned goods, etc.

After the business meeting the hostess served punch, open faced sandwiches, cookies and candy easter eggs.

The May meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Amy Croom. The club was very happy to have Mrs. Russell Brown and Mrs. Joe Newkirk join at this meeting.

Seniors Honored

Mrs. Dallas Jones and Mrs. Emmett Sasser entertained the senior class and their guests Wednesday night in the Woman's Club building.

The building was attractively decorated with arrangements of iris, apple blossoms, pansies and Magnolia blossoms. Blue and white candles carried out the class colors. Candle easter eggs were given as favors.

Mrs. Abbie Smith directed a number of games. Mrs. Clifton Chestnutt assisted Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Sasser in serving a delicious supper consisting of chicken salad on lettuce, tomatoes, pickles, potato chips, deviled eggs, crackers, iced tea, ice cream and cup cakes topped with blue icing and marshmallow bunny rabbit heads.

Entertains Club

Violets, iris, pansies and other spring flowers made up lovely arrangements throughout the living room of Mrs. J. N. Horne last Wednesday night when she entertained her bridge club.

Mrs. Bettiesue Hunt was guest and was presented a gift of ice box containers. Mrs. H. L. Pippin received a butter warmer for high score. Mrs. N. T. Pickett received pickles for floating prize and Mrs. L. E. Pope pickles for low score. The hostess served frozen salad, ribbon sandwiches, cheese straws and iced tea.
