Beta Club Attends Convention

The Beta Club Convention held in Asheville last week was a great ship of the Presbytery to serve as pastor of the Westminster Church, Whiteville, N. C.

A delicious lunch of fried fish, fried chicken, and country ham was served to the delegates by the ladies of the host church. The lunch was served on the church yard which is a beautiful spot with its giant oaks and pine trees and which has recently been planted with beautiful shrubs, azaleas, and green grass.

At the conclusion of the session Elder Cavanaugh was commended by the members of the Presbytery for his service of the day and the manner in which he conducted the meeting.

Rose Hill Woman Arrested For Theft

Ada Mae Everett, colored, of Rose Hill was arrested, Monday by deputy McKay for theft of money from a relative, Curtis Triplin. Triplin had brought Ada Mae and other relatives to Kenansville last Sunday to visit her husband, who was in jail on a forgery charge. After the visit, Ada was the first to reach the car and handing Triplin asleep, slipped his bill fold. After taking the money from the bill fold she threw it in a gutter near the jail.

Mrs. Oscar Houston discovered the purse and turned it over to the sheriff's department.

When confronted Monday by deputy McKay, Ada admitted the theft and returned the money to Triplin. Tried before a local Justice of Peace she was placed under $400 bond for trial in Superior Court August 30. Failing to procure a bondsman, Ada was placed in jail but was later released.
