QUESTION 1. It is to be a clear-cut referendum to decide whether North Carolina is to be completely dry state, or a completely wet one, my answer is yes.

QUESTION 2. I am positively opposed to this and will stand up and be counted for my convictions. I don't think a member of one branch of the Legislature should go much further than to express an honest opinion about a rule the other has or proposes.

QUESTION 3. I will never vote knowingly to abolish the voting privileges of municipalities and minority groups for something they had absolutely nothing to do with so far as I know about.

QUESTION 4. I would support a Statewide bill against legalized gambling, but would like to see it submitted to a vote of the people if there were considerable public sentiment expressed for it being put to a vote of the people.

STATEMENT: As to my convictions as to the best way to handle the liquor problem. Make the manufacture and sale of liquor legal nation-wide and reduce the tax on it to where it could not be made and sold profitably undercover. The answers and statement made are my own and no one else had anything to do with preparing them.

I am happy over my color. A man is a man regardless of his color. We are all in favor of better schools and I think as a whole we all feel the same way. There are my friends. They give me a friendly wave of the hand and I return the gesture. We are all one body in Christ. As for mixing the races in school — No — I don't think my people want that."

James Sam Miller, Route 1, Box 112, Warsaw, farmer who tends more than 100 acres: "I wish they (Supreme Court) had let it stay like it was. I'll be glad to help get up a group to do anything to get our schools separate. I was with a group at a sick woman's house last night. There were about 24 of us discussing it. All but two favored segregation and they were from the North. I've got ten head of cattle and you can see through the trees there where I'm building a dairy. White folks helped me do that. If I can help turn it around I'll be glad to do it, and the quicker it is done will be the better for everybody."

"Look at the progress we have made in the last 20 years in roads and schools. The white people are paying the taxes and supporting things. A white friend made arrangements for me to buy a home here 20 years ago. They have always looked after me and done me and others a whole lot of good. Whenever I need help I know where to look. The quicker we can get this thing back like it was the better it'll be for everybody."

Othella Brock, Rose Hill 6-A elementary school teacher (who came up to Miller's while the editor was there): "The facilities at my school were poor. 12 teachers for 428 children. Only 6 toilets, all outside, and 3 water fountains. We need equal facilities."

Henry Martin, Chairman of the Douglas High School Committee, CP&L employee, Warsaw: "We want a chance to live. We don't want to be discriminated against in schools, employment, or anywhere else. We have come a long way since the Dred Scott decision. I do think that we have to call on school patrons for too many things that the county should supply us. We don't have a lunchroom at our school."

Mrs. Gaston Branch, northeast corner of Duplin near Outlaw's Bridge, wife of School Committee-man: "My husband is not here. I think a petition is all right." She lives just beyond Branch School.

William Henry Kenan, near Charity, Chairman of Deacons, of New Christian Chapel Baptist Church, President of Rose Hill Elementary School PTA, has 250 acre farm, 100 acres cleared, and grows 82 acres tobacco, cattle, hogs: "If we can get equal schools and equal rights it would be better separate. As far as going to church together, no. I do not think any man should be discriminated against on account of his color."

Alex Brown, near Charity, President of PTA at Charity High School, brick layer and farmer: "When I say 'equal' I mean really equal. I think that separate schools are better for both races. I trade in Wallace. I get my clothes at... I couldn't ask that anybody treat me any better than those two gentlemen do. I do think we should have

MISS MILD FRISCH
MOUNT OLIVE — Miss Sula Frisoch, 74, died Sunday at 6:15 p.m. at her home in the Summerlin's Cross Roads community. Funeral services were held Tuesday at 3 p.m. in the Rooky Branch Free Will Baptist Church of which she was a member. The pastor, the Rev. Kenneth Clark, assisted in the service by the Rev. George Lane, Adventist minister of Mt. Olive. Burial was in Summerlin family cemetery in the home community.

BARNEY W. JONES
MOUNT OLIVE — Barney Webb Jones, 62, died of a heart attack Monday at 9 p.m. at his home in the Corbett Hill community near Mount Olive. Surviving are Mrs. Jones, the former Ina Dail of Duplin County; one son, Hoyt, Mount Olive, Route 4; four daughters, Mrs. J. A. Hill and Mrs. E. W. Wilson of New Bern, Mrs. A. T. Grady, Mount Olive, and Mrs. Stanley Kewalski of Fort Lewis, Washington; one sister, Mrs. J. L. Katchside, Warsaw; and one grandchild. Funeral arrangements await word from the daughter in Washington State.

MRS. CHARLES A. JACKSON
Mrs. Charles A. Jackson, 82, of North Wilkesboro, died at the home of her sister, Mrs. Henry Vann, in Wallace Tuesday. She was a native of Sampson County and lived in South Georgia for 38 years where her late husband was a Methodist minister. She is survived by a son, C. A. Jackson, Jr., of Fitzgerald, Ga.; two daughters, Mrs. Richard Finley of North Wilkesboro, with whom she lived, and Mrs. O. A. Gentry, Jr., of Knoxville, Tenn.; three brothers, the Rev. R. M. Williams of Greensboro, T. M. Williams of North Wilkesboro and C. J. Williams of Jacksonville, Fla.; three sisters, Mrs. James F. Cobb of California, Mrs. Vann, Mrs. Lina Potter and Mrs. George Ward, all of Wallace. Funeral services were held Thursday at 11 a.m. in Cordele, Ga. Burial followed there.

Lady in Mineola, N. Y., wants a separation because, she alleges, her husband, a sanitary worker, hasn't taken a bath in 12 years. Maybe he's just hesitant about taking the plunge.

He called attention to the fact that the county has been providing modern school buildings and equipment for Negroes as rapidly as the money became available and is at present engaged in building a modern high school plant for Negroes at Kenansville. The most adequate school plant in the county is for Negroes at the Charity school, which is situated on a 75 acre tract of land. It is the only school in the county with demonstration farming and forestry.

Mr. Herring stressed the fact that Duplin County schools have been setting a precedent in North Carolina educational circles in their program of relating the schools to the community. This has been done through the medium of citizens' committees and the Board expects to continue this relationship in working out all school problems, including the problem of segregation.

"We live in a democracy and we believe that the people ought to have a voice in the operation of their schools. There can be no question of violating the law of the land, but there also ought not to be any question of violating the public will if we are to live up to the democratic principles we profess. I will not serve on any school board or any other board that violates this basic democratic concept, which is the very foundation of this country's greatness.

"I am confident that the Negroes and the white people of Duplin County can work this problem out together to the satisfaction of everyone, so long as we approach the problem in a spirit of understanding and cooperation."

To The Voters Of Duplin County

Believe in the Segregation of the races.

I truly feel that we have enough tried and true leaders among both races; whose sense of justice; whose love for all humanity; whose devotion to duty, is sufficient to enable us to meet this new decision of the Supreme Court of the United States of America without becoming disloyal citizens to our State or Nation.

If we will just follow the Golden Rule, of true Christians -- "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you," and use that good old democratic yard stick of "Equal rights to all and special privileges to none," we can live as good neighbors should and march onward and upward, ever enjoying the fruits of our labor and the liberties of a free people, happy, prosperous and unafraid.

Let us not create a great big boggy man to frighten anyone into having night mares. Let us just get along with our work.

Lewis W. Outlaw
