

HOW THEY VOTED IN SATURDAY'S PRIMARY

Table with columns for CANDIDATE and various precincts (Warraw, Faison, Calypso, etc.) and a TOTALS column. Lists candidates for U.S. Senator, State Treasurer, Commissioner of Insurance, State Senate, House of Representatives, Sheriff, County Court Judge, Coroner, County Commissioner, and County Assessor.

Fred Willett, Sr. Sees Bright Spot In Duplin County

Wallace, May 25—The eyes of the home finance industry of North Carolina and the South are on the development at Wallace and Jacksonville of a program to bring the savings and loan business closer to the people it can serve, Fredrick Willett, Sr., of Wilmington, said here this week.

County Library Board In Annual Meet 1464 Books Added Last Year; Total 13,070

The regular annual meeting of the Duplin County Library Board was held Wednesday afternoon, May 19th, at the County Library Headquarters in Kenansville.

Navy Recruits Now Being Accepted

The Raleigh Navy Recruiting District is again accepting applicants for enlistment in increasing numbers, it was announced today by Lt. H. G. Owens, USN, Officer in Charge of the Raleigh Navy Recruiting District.

Mrs. Wells Accepts Re-Appointment To Welfare Board

Mrs. Winifred Wells of Wallace has accepted re-appointment as a member of the Duplin County Board of Public Welfare as of April 1 as the appointee of the State Board of Public Welfare.

Sheriff Miller Leads Ticket

Election day is over, leaving as usual, many happy candidates and many unhappy runner-ups. Voting was unusually heavy all over the county with Sheriff Ralph Miller winning the largest vote ever recorded for a single candidate.

Final Tobacco Labor Meeting

Mr. James Hunter and Mr. John McLean of the North Carolina Employment Commission will hold the final tobacco labor meeting in the Agriculture Building in Kenansville at 2:00 p.m. on June 10.

Kenansville Native Was Chosen As 'Mother Of Year' In Durham Recently

The following account of Mrs. Josiah S. Murray, native of Kenansville and now a native of Durham, appeared in a recent issue of The Durham Morning Herald.

EDITORIAL

Sometimes I think defeat is greater than victory and I am thinking that now, in the face of my defeat for the State Senate, Mitchell Britt of Warsaw has won by 28 votes, and I think he will represent Duplin in a great manner.

Weather Observer

Wilson, June 1 — Joe Overman, widely-known regional weather observer, will be heard three times daily over the Eastern Carolina Weather Network of eight radio stations.

BRIEFS

FATAL ACCIDENTS FACTS '53 RALEIGH — Of 244 pedestrians killed on North Carolina streets and highways last year, 198 were males, reports the Motor Vehicles Department.

Trott Self Service Center Now Open At Beulaville

C. C. Trott of Beulaville announces the remodeling of his Amoco gas and oil establishment and grocery store into a self service center.

Explorer Troops Go On Trip Saturday

Explorers of Duplin and Sampson Counties will take an Expedition to Angola Bay Saturday and Sunday, June 5 and 6.

Notice

There will be no Street X-Ray made in the Duplin County Health Department except on Monday morning and Wednesday afternoon.

Accident Summary

Accident summary for District Five, Troop "B", May 24th through May 30th, 1954.

Accident Summary

Accident summary for District Five, Troop "B", May 24th through May 30th, 1954.

Accident Summary

Accident summary for District Five, Troop "B", May 24th through May 30th, 1954.

Suggested Program For Poultry Immunization

Our poultry disease workers and the State Veterinarian discourage the widespread use of live virus vaccines. However, if farmers are going to immunize their birds against Fowl Pox, Bronchitis and Newcastle disease, it is best that maximum caution be exercised and that the vaccines used be limited by certain conditions and or programs of disease control.

Jaycees To Sponsor Explorer Scouts

The Kenansville Junior Chamber of Commerce President, Ivy Bowden, announced today that the local Jaycees will sponsor the Explorer Scout Troop 50.

Accident Summary

Accident summary for District Five, Troop "B", May 24th through May 30th, 1954.

Accident Summary

Accident summary for District Five, Troop "B", May 24th through May 30th, 1954.

Accident Summary

Accident summary for District Five, Troop "B", May 24th through May 30th, 1954.

Accident Summary

Accident summary for District Five, Troop "B", May 24th through May 30th, 1954.