

Miss Hollingsworth Bride-Elect Honored At Party

On Monday evening Miss Theo Hollingsworth, bride-elect, was complimented most charmingly when Mesdames Leo Jackson and Vance B. Gevis entertained at fourteen tables of bridge, set-back, rummy and canasta. The Community Hall where the tables were in play was most beautifully decorated for the occasion. Mass arrangements of pink and white gladioli were used most effectively throughout the room.

As guests were greeted at the door and seated by bridal ladies, the hostesses served punch from a beautifully appointed table covered with a white linen cloth and at each end of the table a punch bowl was placed surrounded by trailing ivy. An arrangement of white gladioli, baby breath and feverfew with a miniature bride and groom as the focal point centered the table. The entire room emphasized a green and white color scheme.

The bride elect was given a corsage of white carnations and the bride's mother, a corsage of pink and white gladioli.

After several progressions of play, stroke on Sunday and spent a couple of days in the hospital, but he is home now and improving.

Resolutions Of Respect

We, the members of Kenansville Chapter, No. 215 of the O.E.S., present the following resolutions:

Whereas, God in his infinite wisdom has seen fit to call home our dear sister, Georgia Grady Koenig, a charter member of our chapter, we bow in humble submission to his will.

Whereas, our sister deeply loved the chapter and served it faithfully as long as her health permitted and,

Whereas, we believe that the golden chain now broken, will be restored in perfect unity and beauty in the great Beyond.

Be it resolved,

First, that while we miss her greatly we rejoice in the belief that she is glorified in the land of Eternity.

Second, That we extend our sympathy to the members of the bereaved family and

That we enter a copy of these resolutions upon the records of our chapter and that copies be sent to the family and to The Duplin Times for Publication.

Lovingly the we say farewell To the friend with whom we have walked a while; Our lives are richer for her friendship so true, For the touch of her hand, and her kindly smile.

Baker-Kelly Wed In June

Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Kelly announce the marriage of their daughter, Jeannette, to R. C. Baker, Jr. son of Mr. and Mrs. Baker of Mount Olive.

The wedding took place in Dillon, S. C. on Sunday, June 18th.

The couple are residing with the groom's parents at Mount Olive.

Linen Shower Fetes Bride

Mrs. Clarence Murphy entertained on Friday evening at a linen shower, honoring Miss Theo Hollingsworth, bride-elect. Her home was most attractively arranged and for decoration she used lovely arrangements of purple dahlias with white feverfew.

One table of bridge, one table of canasta and two tables of rummy were in play. High score for bridge was won by Miss Theo Hollingsworth, for Canasta by Mrs. Billy Stevens and for Rummy by Mrs. Louise Mitchell. Each winner presented her gift to the bride-elect.

The hostess served English Toffee topped with ice cream and during play cold drinks and nuts were served.

Little Gayle Murphy came in with a tray loaded with gifts for Miss Hollingsworth. She received a lovely assortment of pretty and useful linens.

Reception Honors Bride Elect

Mrs. R. E. Hollingsworth entertained at an informal reception honoring her daughter, Theo, bride-elect of Saturday on Saturday evening at her home.

Green and white color scheme was used throughout the home.

Guests were greeted at the door by Jimmy Jackson and invited into the dining room where Mrs. G. B. Dail poured punch from the dining table which was overlaid with a cutwork white dining cloth with an arrangement of white gladioli, and feverfew. At the opposite end the punch bowl was outlined with ivy and feverfew with burning white tapers. Nuts, cookies and potato chips were passed.

Guests were then invited into the guest room where the wedding gifts were displayed.

Mrs. Wendell Alphin and Mrs. Belton Minshew were hostesses at large.

Approximately fifty guests called during the evening.

Announce Engagement

Mrs. Alfred Houston Quinn announces the engagement of her daughter, Cornelia, to John Hussey Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Sharpe Williams, of Wilmington. A summer wedding is planned.
